EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1900.

TWO CENTS

STEPPED FROM A MOVING STREET CAR

Miss Della Barker Almost Lost Her Life on Washington Street Yesterday.

TAKEN TO MR. WELLS' HOME

And Medical Aid Summoned, but the Patient Is Still In a Precarious Condition.

DID NOT LOSE CONSCIOUSNESS

Miss Della Barker met with an accident shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon that may cost the lady her life.

Miss Barker had resided in the city for some time, having come here from East Palestine to work as a domestic in the family of Frank Sebring. Since they removed from the city Miss Barker has been visiting friends about the city, and yesterday had planned a trip to Wellsville and the East End.

She boarded a car at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets. Scarcely had she gotten on when the thought struck her that possibly she would not have time to go both places during the afternoon and started to retrace her steps.

She reached the platform just as the car was opposite the residence of William Wells, and without thinking it necessary to signal the motorman to stop, walked from the step.

The car was going at a rapid rate, and when Miss Barker's foot struck the pavement she was thrown violently to the ground, alighting on the back of her head. A nasty wound was inflicted, which caused the blood to flow from her ears and nose.

The accident was witnessed by a number of people, who hastened to her assistance.

B. E. Gould and Ed Hassey were the first to reach her, and after picking her up, she was carried into the home of Mr. Wells, just opposite.

The injured woman was made as comfortable as possible until Drs.
Toot and Shea arrived. After making an examination of the lady's injuries the physicians pronounced the case a serious one, stating that concussion of the brain might result, although very little could be told until today. The most serious trouble seems to lie in the difficulty experienced in stopping the flow of blood from the woman's ears, which has continued since the accident occurred.

No blame is attached to Motorman
Davis, as he received no signal to stop, and ran his car as far as Fourth street before he even knew of the happening.

Miss Barker is somewhat better this afternoon, although she is not yet well enough to be moved. Just as soon as she is able to go, probably tomorrow, she will be taken to the home of her sister at the Ross farm, three miles northwest of this city, where she had been visiting previous to coming here a few days ago.

TO THE INFIRMARY.

An Aged Resident of the City Taken to That Institution Yesterday.

Trustee J. W. Albright yesterday took Nellie Bannister to the county infirmary.

The lady has been afflicted with dropsy for some time and the prospects for her recovery were not favorable, so the authorities thought it best to have her removed to that institution without delay, as the facilities for caring for sick people in this city are not good, besides they can be better cared for at much less expense at the infirmary.

HAD NO MONEY.

BUT PROMISED TO PAY HIS FINE
YESTERDAY.

But Evidently Forgot and Constable Miller Was Compelled to Remind Him.

Alfred Dozzle, who was fined $1 and costs in the court of Squire McLane for a misdemeanor early last week, was arrested by Constable Miller shortly before noon today and placed in jail.

Dozzle is a colored man and had no money, but a good excuse, and the squire let him go upon the promise that he would call at the office and settle.

Thetime was up last night, and when Miller saw Dozzle this morning he told him that he had forgot to come around, and he told Miller to come to the barber shop on Second street and he would give him the money.

Miller went to the shop and Dozzle told him he had no money and didn't know when he would have any, and didn't think he would pay it.

The constable went to the office of Squire McLane and secured an execution and again went after his man.
When he got there Dozzle had started up town and was going along Union street when Miller saw him.

He started after him and captured
the fellow at the Central school building. Dozzle thought the weather was too nice to spend his time behind the bars, so he refused to go.

Miller placed the handcuffs on Dozzle, so he then decided that it would be best to go along.

He was taken to city hall and locked up. Unless he puts up the fine and costs he will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow morning.

HACKWORTH-SHANNON.

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING SOL-
EMNIZED. YESTERDAY

At the Residence of Mrs. Florence
Cunningham, on Fourth Street.
Many Guests.

The home of Mrs. Florence Cunningham, at 228 Fourth street, was last evening the scene of a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being William G. Hackworth and Miss Marie Shannon, two well known young people of this city.

The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock in the presence of 186 guests,
and was performed by Rev. Edwin Weary, of St. Stephen's church, the beautiful ring ceremony of the Episcopal church being used.

The house was profusely and hand-somerly decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and the effect was beautiful.

The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents, and the New Review unites with their many friends in wishing them all the happiness they can have.
They will reside in this city.

day for Richmond, Ind., after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W.
Croxtall.

THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Met Last Night and Made Selection of Teachers Who Are to Serve.

NAMES OF THOSE CHOSEN

There Will Be Deep Disappointment Over Some Who Were Dropped

MAY HAVE A REHEARING

The board of examiners met last night and attended to the business entrusted to their care. Mrs. George
P. Ikirt, B. C. Simms and Rev. J. R.
Greene constituted the board. The examination must have been a severe
one, and calculated to raise the standard of the local educators and education in general in our public schools, as many aspirants fell by the wayside, much to their disappointment
and chagrin. There is now some talk of a rehearing or reexamination of some of those who failed to secure a position as teacher, and some of the friends of the defeated ones are circulating the report that the examination was altogether too severe along certain lines. Following are the names and length of terms of the fortunate aspirants:

Mary E. Gladden, 1 year.
Alma Croxall, 1 year.
Elmer E. Price, 1 year.
Harriet Andrews, 1 year.
Vada Nease, 1 year.
Janet M. Hill, 1 year.
Mayme Bucher, 1 year.
Ellen Orr, 1 year.
M. A. Clements, 2 years.
W. J. Miller, 2 years.
Maude L. Fisher, 5 years.
Mary Jackman, 5 years.

Rumor has it that one of the stumbling blocks in the way of the defeated candidates was the severity of the test along the line of arithmetic,
while another feature was in the matter of penmanship, with occasional lapses in the way of orthography.

These statements are not given
along the line of reliable information,
but are based on mere rumor. The names of the lucky ones, however, can be depended upon as correct, as they were obtained from reliable authority.

For good and sufficient reasons we do not publish the names of those who failed to win a victory. We understand that teachers of years of experience failed to land a plum in this connection.

SWEET CHARITY.

And the Lovers of Our Common Humanity Are Still
With Us.

Yesterday there came into the office of the News Review a farmer
from Pennsylvania and left a nice contribution for the India famine sufferers.

On Monday last a lady resident of East Liverpool sent us a donation for the same purpose, her little boy acting as messenger for the occasion.

Today a lady stopped the writer in one of our prominent thoroughfares
and gave him a welcome donation for the starving ones, remarking:

"I have been looking for you. Please forward with your other contribu-

Each donor desired that no publicity should be given to their names.
And this is the rule of the givers.
They seem to give from the heart,
with the idea of helping others and making their pathway brighter. God has promised a sure reward to the cheerful giver. You have an opportunity to obtain a share in this reward.

More About Klein.

The Record of yesterday says: In Squire Mackenzie's court this morning
W. C. Connor was awarded judgment for $25 against Louis Klein. The suit was brought to recover a month's rent due on the building in which Klein had his saloon. The building was burned on Monday morning. Klein
did not appear to defend the case. C.
R. MacGregor, jr., appeared for Mr.
Connor.

CLEVELAND TRIP WAS CANCELLED

By Traveling Passenger Agent F.
B. Sankey, Who Was Here
Today.

WAS TOO MUCH OPPOSITION

Although the Promoters Deny
That It Was Their Intention to Injure the Celebration.

ANOTHER DATE TO BE FIXED

Traveling Passenger Agent T. B.
Sankey was here from Pittsburg this morning, and after conferring with
the parties having in charge the celebration of Labor day and those of the employees of Thompson's pottery who proposed conducting an excursion to Cleveland on Monday, decided to cancel the trip to Cleveland.

This is brought about in the main
by the opposition to the excursion on the part of Trades and Labor Council,
who, at their meeting Wednesday,
passed a resolution declaring it a scheme on the part of the promoters to injure the success of the celebration here.

The employees of the Thompson factory declare that they had no such intention when the movement was started, as the idea of Labor day was a time for laboring men to enjoy themselves, and in their estimation
the day could be better enjoyed in Cleveland than here. They have therefore decided to postpone the trip until some time in the near future
when there will be no opposition and the prospects are better for a good attendance.

A CONFERENCE

Was Held Between the Committee of Trades Council and Mr. Patterson Last Night.

Although a meeting was held last night at which a part of Trades Council's committee and Monroe Patterson were present, no propositions were made, and no definite conclusions arrived at.

The grievance committee report
that it will be necessary to again confer with the machinists' organization
before it can be definitely decided what the course will be in the future.

Mr. Patterson's position does not differ materially from the attitude assumed by that gentleman from the start, and it is not known even by those directly concerned what the outcome will be.

WAREHOUSE WOMEN

Met in Regular Session Last Night
And Adopted a Strong
Resolution.

The biscuit warehouse women met in regular session last night, a good attendance being present.

Several matters of importance were disposed of and a strong resolution was passed urging all the members to remain in the city on Labor day, and branding as unfair the movement to take an excursion from this city on that day.

The organization decided to turn out in the parade in carriages and made arrangements for the hire of a sufficient number of rigs to accommodate the entire membership.

street when Miller saw him.

He started after him and captured
the fellow at the Central school building. Dozzle thought the weather was too nice to spend his time behind the bars, so he refused to go.

Miller placed the handcuffs on Doz-le, so he then decided that it would be best to go along.

He was taken to city hall and locked
up. Unless he puts up the fine and costs he will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow morning.

HACKWORTH-SHANNON.

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING SOL-
EMNIZED. YESTERDAY

At the Residence of Mrs. Florence
Cunningham, on Fourth Street.
Many Guests.

The home of Mrs. Florence Cunningham, at 228 Fourth street, was last evening the scene of a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being William G. Hackworth
and Miss Marie Shannon, two well known young people of this city.

The ceremony took place at 9
o'clock in the presence of 186 guests,
and was performed by Rev. Edwin Weary, of St. Stephen's church, the beautiful ring ceremony of the Episcopal church being used.

The house was profusely and handsomely decorated with cut flowers
beautiful.

The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and costly
presents, and the New Review unites
with their many friends in wishing
them all the happiness they can have.

day for Richmond, Ind., after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W.
Croxtall.

THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Met Last Night and Made Selection of Teachers Who Are
to Serve.

NAMES OF THOSE CHOSEN

There Will Be Deep Disappointment Over Some Who Were Dropped

MAY HAVE A REHEARING

The board of examiners met last night and attended to the business entrusted to their care. Mrs. George
P. Ikirt, B. C. Simms and Rev. J. R.
Greene constituted the board. The examination must have been a severe
one, and calculated to raise the standard of the local educators and education in general in our public schools,
as many aspirants fell by the way-
side, much to their disappointment
and chagrin. There is now some talk
of a rehearing or reexamination of
some of those who failed to secure a position as teacher, and some of the friends of the defeated ones are circulating the report that the examination was altogether too severe
along certain lines. Following are the names and length of terms of the fortunate aspirants:

Mary E. Gladden, 1 year.
Alma Croxtall, 1 year.
Elmer E. Price, 1 year.
Harriet Andrews, 1 year.
Vada Nease, 1 year.
Janet M. Hill, 1 year.
Mayme Bucher, 1 year.
Ellen Orr, 1 year.
M. A. Clements, 2 years.
W. J. Miller, 2 years.
Maude L. Fisher, 5 years.
Mary Jackman, 5 years.

Rumor has it that one of the stumbling blocks in the way of the defeated candidates was the severity of the test along the line of arithmetic,
while another feature was in the matter of penmanship, with occasional lapses in the way of orthography.

These statements are not given
along the line of reliable information,
but are based on mere rumor. The names of the lucky ones, however, can
be depended upon as correct, as they were obtained from reliable authority.

For good and sufficient reasons we
do not publish the names of those who failed to win a victory. We understand that teachers of years of experience failed to land a plum in this connection.

SWEET CHARITY.

And the Lovers of Our Common Humanity Are Still
With Us.

Yesterday there came into the office of the News Review a farmer
from Pennsylvania and left a nice contribution for the India famine sufferers.

On Monday last a lady resident of East Liverpool sent us a donation for the same purpose, her little boy acting as messenger for the occasion.

Today a lady stopped the writer in
one of our prominent thoroughfares
and gave him a welcome donation for
the starving ones, remarking:

"I have been looking for you. Please
forward with your other contribu-

Each donor desired that no publicity should be given to their names.
And this is the rule of the givers.
They seem to give from the heart,
with the idea of helping others and
making their pathway brighter. God
has promised a sure reward to the cheerful giver. You have an opportunity to obtain a share in this reward.

Klein had his saloon. The building
was burned on Monday morning. Klein
did not appear to defend the case. C.
R. MacGregor, jr., appeared for Mr.
Connor.

By Traveling Passenger Agent F.
B. Sankey, Who Was Here
Today.

Although the Promoters Deny
That It Was Their Intention to Injure the Celebration.

ANOTHER DATE TO BE FIXED

Traveling Passenger Agent T. B.
Sankey was here from Pittsburg this morning, and after conferring with
the parties having in charge the celebration of Labor day and those of the employes of Thompson's pottery who proposed conducting an excursion
to Cleveland on Monday, decided to cancel the trip to Cleveland.

This is brought about in the main
by the opposition to the excursion on the part of Trades and Labor Council,
who, at their meeting Wednesday,
passed a resolution declaring it a scheme on the part of the promoters to injure the success of the celebration here.

The employes of the Thompson factory declare that they had no such intention when the movement was
a time for laboring men to enjoy themselves, and in their estimation
the day could be better enjoyed in Cleveland than here. They have therefore decided to postpone the trip
until some time in the near future
the prospects are better for a good attendance.

A CONFERENCE

Was Held Between the Committee of Trades Council and Mr. Patterson Last Night.

Although a meeting was held last night at which a part of Trades
Council's committee and Monroe Patterson were present, no propositions
arrived at.

The grievance committee report
that it will be necessary to again confer with the machinists' organization
before it can be definitely decided
what the course will be in the future.

Mr. Patterson's position does not differ materially from the attitude assumed by that gentleman from the start, and it is not known even by those directly concerned what the outcome will be.

WAREHOUSE WOMEN

Met in Regular Session Last Night
And Adopted a Strong
Resolution.

The biscuit warehouse women met
in regular session last night, a good attendance being present.

Several matters of importance were disposed of and a strong resolution
was passed urging all the members to remain in the city on Labor day, and branding as unfair the movement to take an excursion from this city on
that day.

The organization decided to turn out
in the parade in carriages and made arrangements for the hire of a sufficient number of rigs to accommodate the entire membership.

MORE OBSTACLES TO THE SCALE

Difficulties Among Kilnmen are Now Recognized by Manufacturer's Committee.

THEY WILL MEET SOON

Vice President Hutchins Says the Agitation For the New Scale
Will Be Continued.

THE SITUATION IS UNCHANGED

Trenton True American.

The pottery situation is at a standstill, and the executive board is still patiently waiting for the committee
of the manufacturers to get together.
The board appears to have every confidence that the scale will be put in operation here before many weeks.
It has been the opinion of those in touch with the situation that there would be mighty little more heard of the new scale hereabouts.

Frank Hutchins, the national vice president of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, said yesterday:

"The members of the executive board have the utmost confidence that the new scale will be put in force here.

"The executive board has done its work toward putting the scale in force,
and now the matter rests with President Hughes and the committee on labor from the manufacturers.

"We paved the way by getting the kilnmen and pressers to accept the scale, subject to certain conditions.

"These conditions were set forth in a set of resolutions which we forwarded to the manufacturers.

"This was more than a month ago,
and they have taken no action on them.

"President Hughes got tired waiting for them to call a meeting and he went home, and he is at present employed adjusting some slight differences among the potters in the west.

"If the manufacturers are sincere
in wanting the scale put into operation
the only thing they have to do is to call a conference and Mr. Hughes will come east at once."

Daniel Willets and John A. Campbell, whose absence from the city has made it impossible for the committee on labor of the manufacturers to meet and take action on the kilnmen's resolutions, have returned home.

Mr. Campbell said yesterday that he did not think the committee would be able to get together for a day or two.

He also said that it is impossible to take any action on the kilnmen's resolution at once, owing to some dissatisfaction existing within that organization.

20, would say that the statement is absolutely false. I know nothing about the troubles existing between the potters and manufacturers. Yours

A High Old Time Was Had With the Funds Collected for the Boers.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—(Special Correspondence.)—For the past few weeks the Washington public has been highly entertained by a serio-comic fight in the camp of the gentlemen who so loudly proclaim their monopoly of the good motives of the universe. The occasion of this ludicrous jumble was furnished by the recent visit of the Boer delegates to the capital.

When it was positively known that they were coming, it was the intention of the citizens, irrespective of party, to tender them a proper reception. However, before a meeting could be called by the representative business men of Washington the irrepressible Hon. William Sulzer, the Tammany congressman who revolves like a pin-wheel, bobbed up and seized upon the undertaking.

It appears that Sulzer had taken the precaution to have some correspondence with the Boer officials, and this, according to the East Side mode of reasoning, clearly entitled him to pitch in and become the whole thing. He called a meeting that was composed largely of gentlemen of the Sulzer calibre, and from which the substantial citizens of Washington remained studiously away. Sulzer was chosen as chairman of the committee to receive the Boers and was clothed with extraordinary power. He appointed the sub-committees, arranged the program for the reception and public meeting, and the hand of the Tammany statesman was to be found in all the most important details. It was to be a Sulzerite affair from start to finish.

By this time it was plain to be seen that the affair was being utilized as a Democratic campaign card. Democratic senators and representatives were selected as vice presidents and orators for the meeting, but the programs were so carefully arranged that at each of these functions Mr. Sulzer was the principal orator. All the other orators evolved around the Tammany congressman and at every turn the Boer delegates made they bumped into a large chunk of the eloquence that made Sulzer famous.

The climax came the night the meeting was held in the Grand Opera House. Sulzer was in his glory and the only person who approached him was the Hon. Webster Davis, who was fresh from his famous exploits in South Africa. It was upon this occasion Mr. Davis paid his much talked of eulogy to former Consul Macrum and recited his thrilling experience with the "horse dragoons." The speeches of Sulzer, Davis, the Hon. "Windy" Allen, of Nebraska, and a few of the lesser lights were touching, and that was just what they were intended to be.

After the speeches were well under way Mr. Sulzer announced that a collection for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the Boer soldiers would be taken up, and he immediately called for subscriptions, leading off himself with a liberal sum. Repeatedly would Sulzer call the names of members of the audience and suggest that they contribute. Placed in such uncomfortable positions there was nothing for them to do but "shell out," and when the sand bagging process had been completed it was supposed that the widows and orphans of the Boers would be the recipients of over $1,800. The meeting was voted a success from a financial standpoint and the Boer delegates appeared to be highly pleased over the showing of substantial sympathy.

But it is the sequel that amuses. By this time the pro-Boer movement in Washington had degenerated openly into a Democratic, anti-expansion and Bryan side show and the Bryanites were whooping it up to the best of their ability. However, there was some degree of satisfaction to be found in the fact that $1,800 had been raised for the distressed families of the Boer soldiers, and the thought that they were to be relieved even to that extent was pleasing.

Mr. Sulzer, by reason of his position as supreme dictator, was made the custodian and disbursing agent of the fund and was authorized to apply the same to the suffering Boers as his judgment should dictate. How well he did this is shown by the report of the committee appointed to investigate the affair.

Dr. W. A. Croffut is one of the most rampant of the local anti-expansionists. He also makes a specialty of pro-Boer sympathies. Being an all-around anti-administration man, the doctor entered heartily into the reception to the delegates from South Africa, believing that considerable Democratic capital might be made out of the affair if it were only properly worked. However, the doctor is not an ardent admirer of Sulzer, and a short time ago he took it upon himself to make inquiry as to the number of Boer widows and orphans relieved by the $1,800 fund.

A little investigation convinced Dr. Croffut that none of the money had been expended as its donors intended it should be and he openly charged that it had been diverted. This led to a call for a meeting of the Sulzer committee.

At that time the busy Tammany statesman was engaged in circulating between Lincoln and Kansas City in his memorable candidacy for the vice presidential nomination and his admirers declared that Croffut's charges were but the outcome of a deep-laid plot of the trusts and English money to bring about Sulzer's defeat. But Croffut is a persistent person and continued to insist that there was something wrong.

Finally he succeeded in securing a report which showed that, after the expense of the Grand Opera House meeting had been paid and a few incidentals liquidated, the sum of $18 and a few odd cents remained for the Boer widows and orphans.

It was under the cover of "incidentals" the richness was found. Under this head railway fares, hotel bills and livery bills for Tammany politicians were paid.

But the greatest of all were the wine bills.

It is no wonder that the $1,800 subscription was made to melt so rapidly. When a Tammany statesman undertakes to quench his thirst for liquor something is bound to give away, and in this particular case it was the fund for the widows and orphans of the Boer soldiers that vanished.

According to the report of the auditing committee the Washington reception to the Boer delegates was a disgraceful debauch and the gentlemen who traveled in good faith from South Africa to the capital were imposed upon in the most shameful manner.

Dr. Croffut is an ardent supporter of Mr. Bryan, but he denounces the conduct of the Democratic politicians in the most emphatic language.

Up to the present time the $18 and few odd cents remain in the hands of the treasurer of the committee, subject to the order of Mr. Sulzer. After this shall have been disposed of another incident in Democratic sympathy for down trodden humanity may be considered as closed.

HEROIC SOLDIERS.

The Peking rescuers did heroic service and the world at large is giving them full praise therefor. The United States will fittingly reward her heroes.

BIG ODDS.

On one train leaving Chicago on Thursday of this week, the straw vote showed 300 for McKinley and one vote for Bryan. It was a western contingent. The writer came out on a train which showed 140 for McKinley, 17 for Bryan and 6 not voting.

CHINA.

Russia's peace plan has favor with Russia, Great Britain, France, Japan and the United States. Germany and Italy oppose at present, but will likely fall into line. The outlook is for an amicable settlement of existing difficulties.

HEROIC DEFENSE.

As the particulars of the siege at Peking come to the front, they demonstrate the fact that the very highest order of gallantry and pluck held sway in the hearts and lives of the besieged. The odds were immense; but, nothing daunted, the heroes and heroines each bore their full part in standing off the rushes of the savage Boxers, and the execution in the ranks of the latter finally caused the enemy to retreat in dismay. As the hoodlums of our streets say, in their expressive language: "Them Boxers went up against the hot stuff and got left."

EX-PRISONERS OF WAR.

There was an intensely interesting session of the ex-prisoners of war held in room 307, court house, Chicago, on Wednesday, August 29, at 2 p. m. Commander Atwell has served two years. He is a Pittburger and has worked heroically and intelligently for the benefit of his comrades. Washington city has refused to do anything along the line of benefits for the ex-prisoners, despite the earnest work done. The bill to grant each ex-prisoner the sum of $2 per day for the time he was held in the hands of the Confederacy passed the lower house, but was squelched in the upper. The main opposition rests in the plea that such a measure would take too much money out of the treasury. Comrade Atwell and Comrade Seeley were candidates for commander for the ensuing year. Comrade Seely withdrew and Comrade Atwell was made the unanimous choice of the delegates. A legislative committee was appointed, consisting of Walker, Pittsburg; Ferguson, Iowa, and Palmer, East Liverpool, the latter being made chairman. The instructions to the committee, by the association, is that the pension matter shall be pushed to the front in every honorable and legitimate manner. There is to be no begging done—no charity asked for. The old veterans claim that they have a legitimate right to the remuneration asked for, and they intend that the nation at large shall know the reason for the claim they will make. All men acquainted with the situation of the prisoners at Libby, Bell Island, Castle Thunder, Florence, Milan, Andersonville, Saalsbury,

Charleston Jail Yard, Savannah, and other southern prisons, during the war, know full well that it required far more bravery and true courage to stand loyal to the flag than it did to face serried lines of riflemen, charge a battery or storm an earthwork. Men on every hand refused to work for the confederates, thus letting a confederate go to the front, despite the offer of good food, good clothing and liberty, preferring starvation and death to disloyalty and dishonor. Further, the men who served long terms in these dens of misery, were in very many instances physically ruined for life. This people of this nation, fair always, and always admiring pluck, courage, loyalty and devotion to Old Glory, will yet reward the veterans who are still in existence. Our legislators will be forced, by the people, to acknowledge and satisfy the claim.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1900.

HEROIC SOLDIERS.

The Peking rescuers did heroic service and the world at large is giving them full praise therefor. The United States will fittingly reward her heroes.

BIG ODDS.

On one train leaving Chicago on Thursday of this week, the straw vote showed 300 for McKinley and one vote for Bryan. It was a western contingent. The writer came out on a train which showed 140 for McKinley, 17 for Bryan and 6 not voting.

CHINA.

Russia's peace plan has favor with Russia, Great Britain, France, Japan and the United States. Germany and Italy oppose at present, but will likely fall into line. The outlook is for an amicable settlement of existing difficulties.

HEROIC DEFENSE.

As the particulars of the siege at Peking come to the front, they demonstrate the fact that the very highest order of gallantry and pluck held sway in the hearts and lives of the besieged. The odds were immense; but, nothing daunted, the heroes and heroines each bore their full part in standing off the rushes of the savage Boxers, and the execution in the ranks of the latter finally caused the enemy to retreat in dismay. As the hoodlums of our streets say, in their expressive language: "Them Boxers went up against the hot stuff and got left."

EX-PRISONERS OF WAR.

There was an intensely interesting session of the ex-prisoners of war held in room 307, court house, Chicago, on Wednesday, August 29, at 2 p. m. Commander Atwell has served two years. He is a Pittburger and has worked heroically and intelligently for the benefit of his comrades. Washington city has refused to do anything along the line of benefits for the ex-prisoners, despite the earnest work done. The bill to grant each ex-prisoner the sum of $2 per day for the time he was held in the hands of the Confederacy passed the lower house, but was squelched in the upper. The main opposition rests in the plea that such a measure would take too much money out of the treasury. Comrade Atwell and Comrade Seely were candidates for commander for the ensuing year. Comrade Seely withdrew and Comrade Atwell was made the unanimous choice of the delegates. A legislative committee was appointed, consisting of Walker, Pittsburg; Ferguson, Iowa, and Palmer, East Liverpool, the latter being made chairman. The instructions to the committee, by the association, is that the pension matter shall be pushed to the front in every honorable and legitimate manner. There is to be no begging done—no charity asked for. The old veterans claim that they have a legitimate right to the remuneration asked for, and they intend that the nation at large shall know the reason for the claim they will make. All men acquainted with the situation of the prisoners at Libby, Bell Island, Castle Thunder, Florence, Milan, Andersonville, Saalsbury,

MRS. SARAH SMITH WANTS A DIVORCE

Alleges Her Husband Abused
Her, and After Destroying
Her Clothes

HE CRUELLY DESERTED HER

An Administrator Appointed and a Guardian Ordered to Sell Property.

LIVERPOOL PEOPLE WILL WED

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—Mrs. Sarah M. Smith, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in common pleas court asking a divorce from her husband, James B. Smith, together with the custody of their minor daughter.

The couple were married in Steubenville in November, 1894, and have two children. Mrs. Smith says her husband has frequently abused her, and when she went to visit her parents in Empire last Easter he had destroyed every particle of clothing she had left behind, along with what little furniture there was about the house. He then deserted her.

Smith has since been working in the tile works at that place.

Joseph Johnson was today appointed administrator of the estate of the late Eliza Porter, of Knox township.

John W. Johnson, guardian of Oia B. Marshall, was authorized by the court to sell a lot in Wellsville at private sale.

A Couple of Licenses.

Permission has been granted two Liverpool couples to wed, as follows:

Edward F. Harmon and Miss Minnie M. Tice; John A. Leigh and Miss Fannie B. Teneych.

A Marriage License.

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—A license has been granted to Fred O. Harrison of East Rochester, and Miss Rachel C. Brogan, of Green Hill.

PINEY FORK.

This Church Was a Century Old This Week and Celebrated the Occasion.

Following is the record made by one of the most prosperous congregations of the Steubenville presbytery. Revs. Taggart and Gillis were present from this city at the celebration this week:

Piney Fork church was founded in 1800 by Rev. Alexander Calderhead, who died in January, 1812, after being pastor 10 years. He was the only minister of the Social Reform church north of the Ohio river for about 10 years, and after his death Rev. George Buchanan, father of Rev. Joseph Buchanan, of this city, was the only Social Reform church minister on the north side of the Ohio.

Rev. John Walker settled in Cadiz and preached in Piney Fork, succeeding Rev. Calderhead. Rev. Walker was succeeded in 1821 by Rev. Thomas Hanna, who preached in Cadiz and Piney Fork.

About 1837 Rev. Hanna left Piney Fork and the charge was taken by Rev. Joseph Clokey. In 1840 Mr. Clokey left because of Judge McNarry voting for the Black Laws, and soon after he joined the Social Reform church.

The congregation followed Rev. Clokey's example, and they too joined the Social Reform church. He then remained as pastor until 1845 and was succeeded by Rev. J. M. Jamieson, now of Hopedale, who was installed in 1860 and continued as pastor 28 years.

He was followed by Rev. K. W. McFarland, who resigned his charge after a short time to go as a missionary to Egypt. Rev. J. D. Oldman succeeded Rev. McFarland and he in turn was succeeded by Rev. D. J. White, who was installed Tuesday afternoon. The present handsome church was built in 1886.

Boys, school begins next Tuesday, and we have inaugurated a special sale for your benefit. After two or three months of running, jumping and a good time in general, you need a new suit. All of our suits are reduced in price: $6.00 to $5.00; $5.00 to $4.00; $4.00 to $3.00; $3.50 to $2.75; $2.50 to $1.75; $2.00 to $1.50. Tell your mother all about this sale and tell her to come to our store for your school suit.

JOSEPH BROS.

Like Unto Jeff Davis.

Mr. Bryan's Ohio managers who assume that the Democratic candidate is a consistent spokesman of and believer in Lincoln's creed should remember that Jefferson Davis also invoked the constitution and the Declaration of Independence in his message to the confederate congress, and that a large majority of the Democrats of the United States stood with him. The mere carrying around of a copy of the Declaration of Independence and quoting from it doesn't make a man the only patriot in the country.

Special sale of new up-to-date caps at the special sale for 15c, at JOSEPH BROS.

Murphy's Market.

You can get everything good to eat, substantials and luxuries, at most reasonable prices, and have your goods delivered promptly, by dealing with T. B. MURPHY & SON.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

In Carman's Court.

The case of C. Reed McDaniel versus E. J. and Mary Owen for $26, claimed due for groceries sold and delivered, was up for trial in the court of Justice Carman yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Owen, with her attorney, H. E. Grosshans, were present, but the other defendant failed to put in an appearance. The case was brought for the purpose of recovering judgment for the above amount, which was contracted by Mrs. Owen and which her husband refused to pay.

The defendants have not been living together, and Mr. Owen makes the claim that he is not responsible for any debts contracted by his wife.

Justice Carman has reserved his decision until this evening.

Attending a Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. White and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Smith, of Carrollton, left this morning for Washington, Pa., to attend a family reunion there.

Visiting Here.

Messrs. Charles Merritt and R. Singleton and Misses Virginia and Cornelia Dawson, of Pittsburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Smith, of St. George street.

A New Phone.

John Forbes is having a new phone put in his livery stable.

Will Get His Pay.

MRS. SARAH SMITH WANTS A DIVORCE

Alleges Her Husband Abused
Her, and After Destroying
Her Clothes

HE CRUELLY DESERTED HER

An Administrator Appointed and
a Guardian Ordered to Sell
Property.

LIVERPOOL PEOPLE WILL WED

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—Mrs. Sarah M. Smith, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in common pleas court asking a divorce from her husband, James B. Smith, together with the custody of their minor daughter.

The couple were married in Steubenville in November, 1894, and have two children. Mrs. Smith says her husband has frequently abused her, and when she went to visit her parents in Empire last Easter he had destroyed every particle of clothing she had left behind, along with what little furniture there was about the house. He then deserted her.

Smith has since been working in the tile works at that place.

Joseph Johnson was today appointed administrator of the estate of the late Eliza Porter, of Knox township.

John W. Johnson, guardian of Ola B. Marshall, was authorized by the court to sell a lot in Wellsville at private sale.

A Couple of Licenses.

Permission has been granted two Liverpool couples to wed, as follows: Edward F. Harmon and Miss Minnie M. Tice; John A. Leigh and Miss Fannie B. Teneych.

A Marriage License.

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—A license has been granted to Fred O. Harrison of East Rochester, and Miss Rachel C. Brögan, of Green Hill.

PINEY FORK.

This Church Was a Century Old This Week and Celebrated the Occasion.

Following is the record made by one of the most prosperous congregations of the Steubenville presbytery. Revs. Taggart and Gillis were present from this city at the celebration this week:

Piney Fork church was founded in 1800 by Rev. Alexander Calderhead, who died in January, 1812, after being pastor 10 years. He was the only minister of the Social Reform church north of the Ohio river for about 10 years, and after his death Rev. George Buchanan, father of Rev. Joseph Buchanan, of this city, was the only Social Reform church minister on the north side of the Ohio.

Rev. John Walker settled in Cadiz and preached in Piney Fork, succeeding Rev. Calderhead. Rev. Walker was succeeded in 1821 by Rev. Thomas Hanna, who preached in Cadiz and Piney Fork.

About 1837 Rev. Hanna left Piney Fork and the charge was taken by Rev. Joseph Clokey. In 1840 Mr. Clokey left because of Judge McNarry voting for the Black Laws, and soon after he joined the Social Reform church.

The congregation followed Rev. Clokey's example, and they too joined the Social Reform church. He then remained as pastor until 1845 and was succeeded by Rev. J. M. Jamieson, now of Hopedale, who was installed in 1860 and continued as pastor 28 years.

He was followed by Rev. K. W. McFarland, who resigned his charge after a short time to go as a missionary to Egypt. Rev. J. D. Oldman succeeded Rev. McFarland and he in turn was succeeded by Rev. D. J. White, who was installed Tuesday afternoon. The present handsome church was built in 1886.

Boys, school begins next Tuesday, and we have inaugurated a special sale for your benefit. After two or three months of running, jumping and a good time in general, you need a new suit. All of our suits are reduced in price: $6.00 to $5.00; $5.00 to $4.00; $4.00 to $3.00; $3.50 to $2.75; $2.50 to $1.75; $2.00 to $1.50. Tell your mother all about this sale and tell her to come to our store for your school suit.

Like Unto Jeff Davis.

Mr. Bryan's Ohio managers who assume that the Democratic candidate is a consistent spokesman of and believer in Lincoln's creed should remember that Jefferson Davis also invoked the constitution and the Declaration of Independence in his message to the confederate congress, and that a large majority of the Democrats of the United States stood with him. The mere carrying around of a copy of the Declaration of Independence and quoting from it doesn't make a man the only patriot in the country.

In Carman's Court.

The case of C. Reed McDaniel versus E. J. and Mary Owen for $26, claimed due for groceries sold and delivered, was up for trial in the court of Justice Carman yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Owen, with her attorney, H. E. Grosshans, were present, but the other defendant failed to put in an appearance. The case was brought for the purpose of recovering judgment for the above amount, which was contracted by Mrs. Owen and which her husband refused to pay.

The defendants have not been living together, and Mr. Owen makes the claim that he is not responsible for any debts contracted by his wife.

Justice Carman has reserved his decision until this evening.

THE SIEGE OF PEKING.

A Medal Will Be Struck In It's Commemoration.

"MEN, NOT WALLS, MAKE A CITY."

Where, a Few Days Since, Anxiety Reigned, Now All Is Tumultuous Joy, Handful of Enlightened Christians Kept Back Hordes of Barbarians.

Peking, Aug. 14, by post via Tien Tsin.—A medal will be struck commemorating the siege of Peking. It will bear the legend, "Men, Not Walls, Make a City."

In the grounds of the British legation, where a handful of men withstood the millions of the Chinese capital for 56 days, a memorable celebration is in progress tonight in vindication of that principle. Missionaries assembled about Bell Tower singing the Dextology. Rockets are blazing; soldiers and civilians of all nationalities are fraternizing; the women are applauding the sound of the cannon that are smashing the yellow roofs of the Forbidden City. The tired Sikhs are planting their tents on the lawn, and the American and Russian contingents are lighting campfires along the stretch of turf extending beyond the Tartar wall.

Through the ruins of the foreign settlement an eager, cosmopolitan crowd is jostling. Indians, Cossacks, legation ladies, diplomats, Americans from the Philippines and French disciplinarians from Saigon (who kept discreetly to the rear while the fighting was in progress, but came conspicuously to the front when looting began.) Only the Japanese, who have earned first place, are absent.

Resident foreigners welcome the luxury of walking about and immunity from bullets. The newcomers are anxious to inspect the evidences of a historic defense. The barricades are, after all, the most wonderful sight in Peking. The barriers hedging the British legation are a marvel of stone and brick walls and earthworks. Sandbags shield every foot of space. The tops of the walls have niches for the riflemen and the buildings at their porticos and windows have armor boxes, bags stuffed with dirt and pillows, too.

Back of the nited States legation is a work named "Fort Myers," which the marines held, completely screening both sides of the walls with steps leading to it. There is a loopholed barrier across the wall which faces a similar Chinese work a few yards away. Another wall bars Legation street in front of the German legation, and, confronting the enemy's barricades within those limits, are yet more walls, enabling the foreigners to contract the area of defense if pressed.

The tons of the American and British buildings were badly torn by the Chinese shells. The rest of the foreign settlement was almost demolished. Ten thousand eight hundred shells fell there during the first three weeks of the bombardment. 400 in one day. Buckets of bullets were gathered in the grounds.

Four hundred and fourteen people lived in the compound through the greater part of the siege. Three hundred and four marines, assisted by 85 volunteers, commanded by the English captain, Poole, defended the place. Eleven civilians were killed and 19 wounded. Fifty-four marines and sailors were killed and 112 wounded.

NEARLY ALL FOR PEACE.

Five of the Great Powers Agree With Russia—Two Oppose.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Five powers have agreed to Russia's proposition to withdraw troops from Peking and two have announced opposition to its adoption. Four powers have finally declared that Li Hung Chang is acceptable to them as peace envoy for China, two question not only Li's credentials but the power of the imperial government to approve his acts, and one wishes to know more about the credentials he holds before it is willing to treat through him.

FLAG CONSECRATION DAY.

Stirring Philippic by a German Preacher, Little Politics Mixed In.

Berlin, Aug. 31.—The flag consecration Thursday was a much more elaborate ceremony than usual, owing to the fact that the flags for the China regiments were included. Pastor Woelfing delivered the consecration address, pointing to the flaring cross in the folds of a flag he said: "It is a crusade. It is a holy war. International law has been broken, and the laws of humanity have been trodden under foot. Oriental barbarism has risen against Occidental civilization."

Thursday's papers reprint a London dispatch from Washington saying that the United States government addressed a circular to the powers, Aug. 24, regarding their future policy in China and also that the powers answered changing their present policy, but that they could see no reason for was unable to discuss future plans until full reports had been received from their diplomatic representatives regarding the political situation. A high official of the German foreign office, whose attention was called to the dispatch, said the statement was not correct in the form in which it appeared.

IT WAS REALLY BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Result of Examination—Ships From Glasgow to Be Quarantined.

Glasgow, Aug. 31.—The post mortem examination of the body of the person who died from the plague Aug. 27 establishes the disease as bubonic plague. This has been officially announced by Dr. Chalmers, the chief medical officer, and is supported by Professor Muir and Dr. Brownlie.

The foreign consuls are in communication with the medical authorities, and all Glasgow ships may be quarantined.

A MESSAGE FROM CONGER.

More Russian, German, French and Italian Troops Arrive at Peking.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The state department has made public the following telegram from Minister Conger, received through United States Consul Fowler, at Che Foo:

"Secretary of State, Washington: 'From Che Foo, Received Aug. 30, 6:44 a. m.—30th—Following received yesterday: 'More Russian, German, French and Italian troops arriving. Imperial palace will be entered Aug. 28, and a military promenade of all nations will be made through it. Afterward it will be closed and guarded. Prince Ching is expected in a few days.—Conger.'"

Following is the state department comment on the above: Mr. Fowler's prefatory statement that Mr. Conger's dispatch is dated "yesterday" (Aug. 29) probably refers to the Taku date line on the message as received by him at Che Foo.

UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA.

Wu Hopes They Will Work Together to Bring About Peace.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister to this country, passed through this city on his way from Washington to Cape May. He expressed the opinion that the difficulty over the arrangement for peace negotiations will be adjusted satisfactorily. He said:

"I sincerely hope and believe that the United States and Russia are together in their efforts to bring about peace in my country, and I firmly hope and pray that the other powers will see the wisdom and importance of uniting in the interests of peace."

TOO, TOO GENEROUS BOERS.

They Release British Prisoners, Who Will Rejoin Lord Roberts.

Lorenzo Marques, Aug. 31.—The British prisoners at Moot Gedbach (on the railroad east of Machadodorp) have been released by the Boers, and are marching to join Lord Roberts' forces at Watervalhooven, near Machadodorp.

Mafeking, Aug. 31.—A cyclone that visited Mafeking Wednesday evening did more damage than the seven months' bombardment. It blew down or unroofed numerous buildings and leveled the military camp hospital, causing much suffering among the sick and wounded. One person was killed and two were injured and there were many narrow escapes.

Of Interest to Labor Organizations.

London, Aug. 31.—A verdict against picketing during strikes was rendered by Justice Farwell, of the high court of justice, who enjoined General Secretary Bell of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, and Organizing Secretary Holmes from watching and besetting the Great Western railroad stations and approaches with the view of inducing non-unionists to refrain from taking the places of Taff Vale railroad strikers.

Troubles of an Elopement Doctor.

Philadelphia, Aug. 31.—Dr. Howard Wilkinson, of Dover, Del., who recently ran away with Miss Josephine Packard, his wife's sister, the elopement causing a widespread sensation, is in the city. He expresses his intention to leave for El Paso, Tex., at the end of the week in hopes of recuperating his health. He said he was disgusted, and accused the Packards of persecuting him in various ways.

WORKING FOR PEACE.

United States and Russia Are Side by Side.

THEIR INFLUENCE WILL BE FELT.

After Order in China Is Established Other Questions Will Be Rapidly Disposed Of—Li Hung Chang May Yet Prove an Important Factor in the Negotiations.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The United States government, having acted upon the Russian proposition as to the withdrawal of troops from Peking, is now quietly waiting for responses to the notes which have been sent to our various representatives abroad for presentation to the powers. Judging by the rate of progress made in the preceding negotiations several days and perhaps a week may pass before all of these replies are received. According to their formal expressions, all of the powers are agreed upon this one point—they do not desire to enter upon a formal war upon China. The United States government is trying to bring about this result.

For the moment it finds itself side by side with Russia, whose earnestness cannot be questioned at this time. The object now in view is to bring about a situation in China that will admit of the beginning of negotiations looking to the re-establishment of order and the cessation of hostilities, the insurance of protection to foreign life and property. After that the negotiations may touch upon other questions that remain to be settled. It is with this object that Russia has suggested the withdrawal from Peking, in order that the Chinese government may resume the reins of power, for the Chinese people, being guided by externals, are not apt to yield fealty to a government not in the possession of its own capital. The United States government has been earnestly championing the cause of Li Hung Chang from a precisely similar motive, namely, a desire to speedily rehabilitate the Chinese government in order that it may carry out its expressed desire to settle the difficulties which have arisen. This has been the object of the negotiations of the last few days, and the Russian note and the United States response were but the parts of the general plan.

Intention of Other Powers.

In responding to the Russian note as it did, the United States government availed itself of the opportunity of directly inviting the remaining powers to express their desires in the matter of a settlement, or, rather, to indicate how, in their judgment, peace negotiations could be thus instituted. This note is calculated to secure a full disclosure of the intentions of the powers, if the inquiry is met by them in the frank spirit in which it was conceived by the United States government. The difficulty apprehended now in reaching a settlement lies in the intentional delay and procrastination on the part of any power which is concealing its true purpose, and does not desire to avoid a formal war.

The state department is already embarrassed in securing responses to its note challenging the production of objections to Li Hung Chang. It appears that much confusion exists at Taku as to what actually had been decided upon respecting the treatment of Li Hung Chang, should he arrive at that place en route to Peking. The reports of the naval commanders to their governments rather increased the confusion in an international sense. Admiral Remy found it difficult to sift out the facts at Taku. Now the state department finds the replies so far received from Europe vague and unsatisfactory, from the reason that the various governments appear to have different understandings as to the exact conditions at Taku.

Matters Soon to Be Adjusted.

It could not be learned from whom replies were received and which were missing, but it can be stated that at present the question as to the acceptability of Earl Li as an envoy and his freedom from interference remain unsettled. The advance of the Russian proposition may reduce the importance of the other questions, for with the return of the Chinese government to Peking the smaller matters of the personalities of the envoys and the sufficiency of credentials could be speedily adjusted. Altogether, the opinion among the members of the administration here is that the Russian move has been made directly for an earlier settlement of the Chinese difficulties than seemed possible a few days ago.

Secretary Root, in speaking yesterday of the statement in the Conger dispatch, saying that Prince Ching was coming to Peking, said that it was a favorable indication. Prince Ching has been friendly to the foreigners and has been among the more progressive of the Chinese officials. It was also stated that the condition seemed to be improving. So far no orders have been issued directing the return of the United States troops from China or their removal from Peking to Tien Tsin or to any other point on the seacoast.

It is still the policy of the United States, as expressed in the note of July 3, to secure order in China. If there should appear in Peking members of the Chinese government who were duly authorized to organize a government, and could do so, with the prospect of restoring order throughout the empire, it would be considered a movement on the part of China toward carrying out the demands of the United States. This government might then consider the advisability of withdrawing troops from the capital, especially if this action would tend toward the pacification of China.

The state department received a telegram from its special commissioner to investigate and report upon conditions in China, Mr. W. W. Rockhill, dated at Shanghai, Aug. 30, saying that he was about to leave for Peking.

The Market Fluctuated—Money Rates Will Not Go Any Higher.

New York, Aug. 31.—The early promise of strength in the stock market Thursday was not maintained, and after a brief period of some activity and firmness prices began to decline again and the trading tapered down to the insignificant proportions which have become the recent normal. The steel group especially disappointed the hopes that a bull movement was under way, by developing heavy tone. Steel and Wire falling back over a point. The American Tinplate and the American Hoop stocks were exceptions and show good gains for the day. There was no news to account for the relapse in the group, the reports at hand showing a growing demand for many grades of iron products. There was a desultory speculation in Sugar, which lifted it at one time over a point after the announcement was made of an advance in the price of refined sugar. But the gain was almost entirely wiped out by the time the market closed. There was nothing in the money market to give color to any apprehension of higher rates. The banks have gained upward of $2,000,000 from the sub-treasury and another substantial increase in reserves is indicated for the week. The market closed dull and heavy at a generally lower level of prices.

Bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,175,000. U. S. refunding 2s, when issued, and the new 4s declined 1/4 per cent in the bid price.

Mills to Resume Operations.

Pottstown, Pa., Aug. 31.—The Hope mill, the Glasgow mill and eight new furnaces in the nail works puddle mill, conducted by the Glasgow Iron company, will resume operations next Monday, after a long idleness. They will employ 300 puddlers and helpers. Potts Brothers' rolling mill, which has been idle for three months, will also resume next week, employing 800 men.

THE SIEGE OF PEKING.

A Medal Will Be Struck In It's Commemoration.

"MEN, NOT WALLS, MAKE A CITY."

Where, a Few Days Since, Anxiety Reigned, Now All Is Tumultuous Joy. Handful of Enlightened Christians Kept Back Hordes of Barbarians.

Peking, Aug. 14, by post via Tien Tsin.—A medal will be struck commemorating the siege of Peking. It will bear the legend, "Men, Not Walls, Make a City."

In the grounds of the British legation, where a handful of men withstood the millions of the Chinese capital for 56 days, a memorable celebration is in progress tonight in vindication of that principle. Missionaries assembled about Bell Tower singing the Doxology. Rockets are blazing; soldiers and civilians of all nationalities are fraternizing; the women are applauding the sound of the cannon that are smashing the yellow roofs of the Forbidden City. The tired Sikhs are planting their tents on the lawn, and the American and Russian contingents are lighting campfires along the stretch of turf extending beyond the Tartar wall.

Through the ruins of the foreign settlement an eager, cosmopolitan crowd is jostling. Indians, Cossacks, legation ladies, diplomats, Americans from the Philippines and French disciplinarians from Saigon (who kept discreetly to the rear while the fighting was in progress, but came conspicuously to the front when looting began.) Only the Japanese, who have earned first place, are absent.

Resident foreigners welcome the luxury of walking about and immunity from bullets. The newcomers are anxious to inspect the evidences of a historic defense. The barricades are, after all, the most wonderful sight in Peking. The barriers hedging the British legation are a marvel of stone and brick walls and earthworks. Sandbags shield every foot of space. The tops of the walls have niches for the riflemen and the buildings at their porticos and windows have armor boxes, bags stuffed with dirt and pillows, too.

Back of the nited States legation is a work named "Fort Myers," which the marines held, completely screening both sides of the walls with steps leading to it. There is a loopholed barrier across the wall which faces a similar Chinese work a few yards away. Another wall bars Legation street in front of the German legation, and, confronting the enemy's barricades within those limits, are yet more walls, enabling the foreigners to contract the area of defense if pressed.

The tops of the American and British buildings were badly torn by the Chinese shells. The rest of the foreign settlement was almost demolished. Ten thousand eight hundred shells fell there during the first three weeks of the bombardment, 400 in one day. Buckets of bullets were gathered in the grounds.

The United States government is trying to bring about this result.

For the moment it finds itself side by side with Russia, whose earnestness cannot be questioned at this time. The object now in view is to bring about a situation in China that will admit of the beginning of negotiations looking to the re-establishment of order and the cessation of hostilities, the insurance of protection to foreign life and property. After that the negotiations may touch upon other questions that remain to be settled. It is with this object that Russia has suggested the withdrawal from Peking, in order that the Chinese government may resume the reins of power, for the Chinese people, being guided by externals, are not apt to yield fealty to a government not in the possession of its own capital. The United States government has been earnestly championing the cause of Li Hung Chang from a precisely similar motive, namely, a desire to speedily rehabilitate the Chinese government in order that it may carry out its expressed desire to settle the difficulties which have arisen. This has been the object of the negotiations of the last few days, and the Russian note and the United States response were but the parts of the general plan.

Intention of Other Powers.

In responding to the Russian note as it did, the United States government availed itself of the opportunity of directly inviting the remaining powers to express their desires in the matter of a settlement, or, rather, to indicate how, in their judgment, peace negotiations could be thus instituted. This note is calculated to secure a full disclosure of the intentions of the powers, if the inquiry is met by them in the frank spirit in which it was conceived by the United States government. The difficulty apprehended now in reaching a settlement lies in the intentional delay and procrastination on the part of any power which is concealing its true purpose, and does not desire to avoid a formal war.

The state department is already embarrassed in securing responses to its note challenging the production of objections to Li Hung Chang. It appears that much confusion exists at Taku as to what actually had been decided upon respecting the treatment of Li Hung Chang, should he arrive at that place en route to Peking. The reports of the naval commanders to their governments rather increased the confusion in an international sense. Admiral Remey found it difficult to sift out the facts at Taku. Now the state department finds the replies so far received from Europe vague and unsatisfactory, from the reason that the various governments appear to have different understandings as to the exact conditions at Taku.

Matters Soon to Be Adjusted.

It could not be learned from whom replies were received and which were missing, but it can be stated that at present the question as to the acceptability of Earl Li as an envoy and his freedom from interference remain unsettled. The advance of the Russian proposition may reduce the importance of the other questions, for with the return of the Chinese government to Peking the smaller matters of the personalities of the envoys and the sufficiency of credentials could be speedily adjusted. Altogether, the opinion among the members of the administration here is that the Russian move has been made directly for an earlier settlement of the Chinese difficulties than seemed possible a few days ago.

Secretary Root, in speaking yesterday of the statement in the Conger dispatch, saying that Prince Ching was coming to Peking, said that it was a favorable indication. Prince Ching has been friendly to the foreigners and has been among the more progressive of the Chinese officials. It was also stated that the condition seemed to be improving. So far no orders have been issued directing the return of the United States troops from China or their removal from Peking to Tien Tsin or to any other point on the seacoast.

It is still the policy of the United States, as expressed in the note of July 3, to secure order in China. If there should appear in Peking members of the Chinese government who were duly authorized to organize a government, and could do so, with the prospect of restoring order throughout the empire, it would be considered a movement on the part of China toward carrying out the demands of the United States. This government might then consider the advisability of withdrawing troops from the capital, especially if this action would tend toward the pacification of China.

The state department received a telegram from its special commissioner to investigate and report upon conditions in China, Mr. W. W. Rockhill, dated at Shanghai, Aug. 30, saying that he was about to leave for Peking.

The Market Fluctuated—Money Rates Will Not Go Any Higher.

New York, Aug. 31.—The early promise of strength in the stock market Thursday was not maintained, and after a brief period of some activity and firmness prices began to decline again and the trading tapered down to the insignificant proportions which have become the recent normal. The steel group especially disappointed the hopes that a bull movement was under way, by developing heavy tone. Steel and wire falling back over a point. The American Tinplate and the American Hoop stocks were exceptions and show good gains for the day. There was no news to account for the relapse in the group, the reports at hand showing a growing demand for many grades of iron products. There was a desultory speculation in sugar, which lifted it at one time over a point after the announcement was made of an advance in the price of refined sugar. But the gain was almost entirely wiped out by the time the market closed. There was nothing in the money market to give color to any apprehension of higher rates. The banks have gained upward of $2,000,000 from the sub-treasury and another substantial increase in reserves is indicated for the week. The market closed dull and heavy at a generally lower level of prices.

Bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,175,000. U. S. refunding 2s, when issued, and the new 4s declined 1/4 per cent in the bid price.

Mills to Resume Operations.

Pottstown, Pa., Aug. 31.—The Hope mill, the Glasgow mill and eight new furnaces in the nail works puddle mill, conducted by the Glasgow Iron company, will resume operations next Monday, after a long idleness. They will employ 300 puddlers and helpers. Potts Brothers' rolling mill, which has been idle for three months, will also resume next week, employing 300 men.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

JAMES S. ROBINSON.

General James S. Robinson of Kenton, Hardin county, was born on a farm in Richland county, Ohio, near Mansfield, Oct. 14, 1827. He worked on a farm, received a common school education, learned the trade of printing, and on the 31st of December, 1845, removed to Kenton, and in January, 1846, established the Kenton Republican, of which he was editor and proprietor until 1864.

He was elected clerk of the Ohio house of representatives in 1856, and was re-elected to the same position in 1858. On the 18th of April, 1861, he enlisted in Company G of the Fourth Ohio Volunteer infantry. He was commissioned first lieutenant and promoted to captain, and played a conspicuous part in the battle of Rich mountain, under General George B. McClellan, Oct. 26, 1861. He was promoted to major of the Eighty-second Ohio, and to lieutenant colonel in April, 1862, and was made colonel of the regiment in August of the same year. He was brevetted brigadier general Dec. 14, 1864, and appointed to that rank Jan. 12, 1865, and brevetted a major general March 3, 1865.

He was severely wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, and participated in the battles of Rich Mountain, Cross Keys, Second Bull Run, Chancellorsville, Resaca, Dallas, New Hope Church, Cul's Farm, Peach Tree Creek, Savannah, Arvelyon and Bentonville.

He was a leading Republican and was chairman of the Republican state executive committee for many years, subsequent to 1877. In 1880 he was appointed commissioner of railroads and telegraphs and held the position for one year. In 1880 he was elected to the Forty-seventh congress from the Ninth district, Hardin, Marion, Delaware, Union, Morrow and Knox counties. In 1882 he was elected to the Forty-eighth congress from the Ninth district, composed of the same counties.

He was elected secretary of state in 1884, defeating James W. Newman by a vote of 391,597 to 380,355, and was re-elected to the same office in 1886 over John McBride by a vote of 341,095 to 329,314. General Robinson was a man of marked ability. He died at Kenton at the age of 70 years.

GEORGE WASHINGTON GEDDES.

George W. Geddes of Mansfield was born at Mount Vernon, Ohio, July 16, 1824; received a common school education; studied law in the office of Hon. Columbus Delano, and was admitted to the bar in July, 1845, and was continuously engaged in the business of the profession till his demise; was elected judge of the court of common pleas of the Sixth judicial district in 1856, and re-elected without opposition in 1861; after serving ten years on the bench he returned to the practice until 1868, when he was again elected judge of the same court for five years, at the expiration of which time he again returned to the practice; was the Democratic candidate for supreme judge in 1871.

He was elected to the Forty-sixth congress in 1878 from the Fifteenth district, Richland, Knox, Holmes, Coshocton and Tuscarawas. In 1880 he was elected to the Forty-seventh congress from the Fourteenth district, Richland, Ashland, Holmes, Wyandot and Crawford; to the Forty-eighth in 1882 from the Fourteenth district, then composed of the counties of Richland, Ashland, Huron and Lorain, and to the Forty-ninth in 1884 from the Sixteenth district, Richland, Holmes, Lorain, Huron and Ashland. Mr. Geddes was an aggressive and consistent Democrat.

JONATHAN T. UPDEGRAFF.

Dr. Jonathan T. Updegraff of Mount Pleasant was born in Jefferson county, Ohio; was educated in the common schools and at Franklin college in that state; is a farmer and physician; worked on a farm until nineteen years of age; studied medicine and graduated at the University of Pennsylvania, and afterward at the medical schools of Edinburgh and Paris.

Dr. Updegraff was a Republican and one of the leaders of his party in the eastern part of the state, and was a very successful organizer of political campaigns. He was a member of the senate in the Sixtieth general assembly.

In 1878 he was elected to the Forty-sixth congress from the Eighteenth district, Jefferson, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison and Belmont counties. In 1880 he was chosen from the Sixteenth district, composed of the counties of Jefferson, Harrison, Belmont, Guernsey and Noble. He served but a portion of his second term, dying somewhat unexpectedly in 1881, and was succeeded by Joseph D. Taylor of Guernsey county.

HENRY L. MOREY.

Henry Lee Morey of Hamilton, Butler county, was born on a Butler county farm, April 8, 1841. He received his education in the common schools and a local academy at the village of Rising Sun, and afterward entered Miami university at Oxford. With the commencement of the civil war in 1861 he left the university, as a member of the University Rifles, a military organization which was attached to the Twentieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served an enlistment of three months in West Virginia. He then enlisted in the Seventy-fifth Ohio for the term of three years, and served under Generals Schenck in West Virginia, Sigel in the Valley of Virginia, Pope and Hatch in Florida and Gillmore at the siege of Charleston.

He was promoted to corporal, sergeant, second lieutenant, first lieutenant and captain, and was mustered out at the end of his enlistment with the latter grade. He then studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1867, and began the practice in Hamilton, where he has a large practice in 1899.

He was elected city solicitor in 1871, and was re-elected. In 1873 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Butler county. In 1875 he was the Republican candidate for the state senate on the Republican ticket and was defeated. He was elected to the Forty-seventh congress in 1880 from the Third district, Butler, Warren, Clinton, Fayette and Clermont counties. He was declared elected to the Forty-eighth congress in 1882 from the Seventh district, Butler, Greene, Warren and Clermont counties, but was unseated upon the contest of James E. Campbell.

In 1888 he was elected to the Fifty-first congress from the Seventh district, composed of Butler, Greene, Clermont and Warren. His record in congress was highly creditable. He is, in 1899, one of the recognized Republican leaders of the state.

WERE IN HARD LUCK.

Sorrowful Christian Endeavorers Returning.

SPENT THEIR MONEY TOO RAPIDLY.

Many Tales of Woe Unfolded—Trunks Were Lost and They Arrived in New York Without Even a Change of Linen. Sightseers Suffered All Sorts of Trouble.

New York, Aug. 31.—Many of the 420 Christian Endeavorers who reached this port from Europe yesterday on the North German Lloyd steamer Aller are unable to proceed to their homes by reason of lack of funds. Neither had any of the 420 any baggage when they arrived, lacking even a change of linen. They tell harrowing stories of their experiences abroad. They report the continent of Europe to be dotted with ill-used Christian Endeavor tourists.

Two thousand Endeavorers sailed from this port on July 4 by the steamer Trave. The contingent just arrived on the Aller is the advance guard of the army of hard luck that is returning from the continent as fast as "money from home" will bring them from interior points to Cherbourg or Southampton, where they meet the steamers. Their passage home has been paid. The pilgrims on the Aller were from Philadelphia, Maryland, St. Louis, Memphis and other points in the south and west.

The majority of them are strangers in New York, awaiting remittances to take them home. They are well-to-do persons at that. Last June they paid from $300 to $500 to a tourist agency to take them to London for the international convention of Endeavorers and from there across the continent on various personally conducted tours.

Mrs. S. J. Edwards, of St. Louis, one of the party, says that the first troubles came from the fact that the agency assigned one guide and two baggage-men to a party of 180 tourists. The baggage-men insisted on trying to drink all the liquor they saw between London and Italy, and as a result the baggage was hopelessly mixed. The hotels the tourists were assigned to were, for the most part, of such a character and so limited in accommodations that the sightseers suffered all sorts of inconveniences. Parts of their tours which were to be made in carriages had to be taken on foot, and finally, at Maringen, the guide informed them that the managers would have to abandon the tour through lack of funds and the excursionists would have to pay their own fare to Cherbourg.

Then those not supplied with money had to borrow from those better fixed, and the French seaport was reached. Here they were informed that their trunks had been shipped on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, and so the return trip across the ocean was made with simply the clothes they had on their backs when they landed at Cherbourg.

WIND-UP OF THE G. A. R.

Major Rassicur, of St. Louis, Elected Commander-In-Chief.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Major Leo Rassicur, of St. Louis, has been chosen commander in chief of the G. A. R. without opposition. The other selections were: Vice commander, D. C. Milliken, of Maine; junior vice commander, Frank Seamons, of Tennessee; surgeon general, John A. Wilkins, Delta, O.; chaplain in chief, Rev. A. Drahms, San Quentin, Cal.

Clara Barton, founder of the Red Cross society, received a great ovation, and briefly addressed the old soldiers. Many G. A. R. men are leaving, and the annual gathering was conceded by all to be one of the most agreeable ever held.

CELEBRATED DIVORCE CASE.

Wedded Bliss Was Short—Mrs. Clarke to Receive $28,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 31.—The celebrated Clarke divorce case, which occupied so much time of the Allegheny county courts some months ago, is said to have been settled upon a basis suitable to the interested parties. It is said Mrs. Clarke is to receive $28,000 in cash and separation papers.

Mrs. Clarke is young and beautiful, while Mr. Clarke is the son of the late millionaire, Charles J. Clarke, of this city. Both occupied high positions socially, she in Washington, D. C., and he in Pittsburg. They only lived together a short time after their marriage. Mr. Clarke brought the action on grounds of infidelity.

WILL BE BUSY.

It is Thought This Official Will Certainly Earn His Salary.

The village council of Matamoras, Ohio, has passed an ordinance fixing salary and defining the duties of the person who shall act as their marshal. Said marshal shall receive $1 per day and fees for suppressing all riots and breaches of the peace, serve all notices of the council, mayor and board of health, prosecute all law breakers and violations of all ordinances; attend all sessions of mayor's court, clean the council chamber spittoons and displace all other rubbish therein, notify councilmen of all regular and called meetings and be in attendance thereat, act as ex-official street commissioner and road supervisor, fill with oil, clean chimneys, trim wicks, light and blow out all street lamps, keep the street crossings clean in bad weather and free from obstruction at all times, shall see that all property owners keep weeds and grass free from their pavements or do it himself, cause able-bodied male persons to work the roads or pay $3 cash, and perform all other duties imposed on him by the council.

For failure to perform the above duties, the marshal shall be ousted and the office declared vacant by council and filled in the same manner as other vacancies. We imagine this official would have little time to either whittle or travel on the cars.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

JAMES S. ROBINSON.

General James S. Robinson of Kenton, Hardin county, was born on a farm in Richland county, Ohio, near Mansfield, Oct. 14, 1827. He worked on a farm, received a common school education, learned the trade of printing, and on the 31st of December, 1845, removed to Kenton, and in January, 1846, established the Kenton Republican, of which he was editor and proprietor until 1864.

He was elected clerk of the Ohio house of representatives in 1856, and was re-elected to the same position in 1858. On the 18th of April, 1861, he enlisted in Company G of the Fourth Ohio Volunteer infantry. He was commissioned first lieutenant and promoted to captain, and played a conspicuous part in the battle of Rich Mountain, under General George B. McClellan, Oct. 26, 1861. He was promoted to major of the Eighty-second Ohio, and to lieutenant colonel in April, 1862, and was made colonel of the regiment in August of the same year. He was brevetted brigadier general Dec. 14, 1864, and appointed to that rank Jan. 12, 1865, and brevetted a major general March 3, 1865.

He was severely wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, and participated in the battles of Rich Mountain, Cross Keys, Second Bull Run, Chancellorsville, Resaca, Dallas, New Hope Church, Cul's Farm, Peach Tree Creek, Savannah, Arvyleon and Bentonville.

He was a leading Republican and was chairman of the Republican state executive committee for many years, subsequent to 1877. In 1880 he was appointed commissioner of railroads and telegraphs and held the position for one year. In 1880 he was elected to the Forty-seventh congress from the Ninth district, Hardin, Marion, Delaware, Union, Morrow and Knox counties. In 1882 he was elected to the Forty-eighth congress from the Ninth district, composed of the same counties.

He was elected secretary of state in 1884, defeating James W. Newman by a vote of 391,597 to 380,355, and was re-elected to the same office in 1886 over John McBride by a vote of 341,095 to 329,314. General Robinson was a man of marked ability. He died at Kenton at the age of 70 years.

GEORGE WASHINGTON GEDDES.

George W. Geddes of Mansfield was born at Mount Vernon, Ohio, July 16, 1824; received a common school education; studied law in the office of Hon. Columbus Delano, and was admitted to the bar in July, 1845, and was continuously engaged in the business of the profession till his demise; was elected judge of the court of common pleas of the Sixth judicial district in 1856, and re-elected without opposition in 1861; after serving ten years on the bench he returned to the practice until 1868, when he was again elected judge of the same court for five years, at the expiration of which time he again returned to the practice; was the Democratic candidate for supreme judge in 1871.

He was elected to the Forty-sixth congress in 1878 from the Fifteenth district, Richland, Knox, Holmes, Coshocton and Tuscarawas. In 1880 he was elected to the Forty-seventh congress from the Fourteenth district, Richland, Ashland, Holmes, Wyandot and Crawford; to the Forty-eighth in 1882 from the Fourteenth district, then composed of the counties of Richland, Ashland, Huron and Lorain, and to the Forty-ninth in 1884 from the Sixteenth district, Richland, Holmes, Lorain, Huron and Ashland. Mr. Geddes was an aggressive and consistent Democrat.

JONATHAN T. UPDEGRAFF.

Dr. Jonathan T. Updegraff of Mount Pleasant was born in Jefferson county, Ohio; was educated in the common schools and at Franklin college in that state; is a farmer and physician; worked on a farm until nineteen years of age; studied medicine and graduated at the University of Pennsylvania, and afterward at the medical schools of Edinburgh and Paris.

Dr. Updegraff was a Republican and one of the leaders of his party in the eastern part of the state, and was a very successful organizer of political campaigns. He was a member of the senate in the Sixtieth general assembly.

In 1878 he was elected to the Forty-sixth congress from the Eighteenth district, Jefferson, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison and Belmont counties. In 1880 he was chosen from the Sixteenth district, composed of the counties of Jefferson, Harrison, Belmont, Guernsey and Noble. He served but a portion of his second term, dying somewhat unexpectedly in 1881, and was succeeded by Joseph D. Taylor of Guernsey county.

HENRY L. MOREY.

Henry Lee Morey of Hamilton, Butler county, was born on a Butler county farm, April 8, 1841. He received his education in the common schools and a local academy at the village of Rising Sun, and afterward entered Miami university at Oxford. With the commencement of the civil war in 1861 he left the university, as a member of the University Rifles, a military organization which was attached to the Twentieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served an enlistment of three months in West Virginia. He then enlisted in the Seventy-fifth Ohio for the term of three years, and served under Generals Schenck in West Virginia, Sigel in the Valley of Virginia, Pope and Hatch in Florida and Gillmore at the siege of Charleston.

He was promoted to corporal, sergeant, second lieutenant, first lieutenant and captain, and was mustered out at the end of his enlistment with the latter grade. He then studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1867, and began the practice in Hamilton, where he has a large practice in 1899.

He was elected city solicitor in 1871, and was re-elected. In 1873 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Butler county. In 1875 he was the Republican candidate for the state senate on the Republican ticket and was defeated. He was elected to the Forty-seventh congress in 1880 from the Third district, Butler, Warren, Clinton, Fayette and Clermont counties. He was declared elected to the Forty-eighth congress in 1882 from the Seventh district, Butler, Greene, Warren and Clermont counties, but was unseated upon the contest of James E. Campbell.

In 1888 he was elected to the Fifty-first congress from the Seventh district, composed of Butler, Greene, Clermont and Warren. His record in congress was highly creditable. He is, in 1899, one of the recognized Republican leaders of the state.

WERE IN HARD LUCK.

Sorrowful Christian Endeavorers Returning.

SPENT THEIR MONEY TOO RAPIDLY.

Many Tales of Woe Unfolded—Trunks Were Lost and They Arrived in New York Without Even a Change of Linen. Sightseers Suffered All Sorts of Trouble.

New York, Aug. 31.—Many of the 420 Christian Endeavorers who reached this port from Europe yesterday on the North German Lloyd steamer Aller are unable to proceed to their homes by reason of lack of funds. Neither had any of the 420 any baggage when they arrived, lacking even a change of linen. They tell harrowing stories of their experiences abroad. They report the continent of Europe to be dotted with ill-used Christian Endeavor tourists.

Two thousand Endeavorers sailed from this port on July 4 by the steamer Trave. The contingent just arrived on the Aller is the advance guard of the army of hard luck that is returning from the continent as fast as "money from home" will bring them from interior points to Cherbourg or Southampton, where they meet the steamers. Their passage home has been paid. The pilgrims on the Aller were from Philadelphia, Maryland, St. Louis, Memphis and other points in the south and west.

The majority of them are strangers in New York, awaiting remittances to take them home. They are well-to-do persons at that. Last June they paid from $300 to $500 to a tourist agency to take them to London for the international convention of Endeavorers and from there across the continent on various personally conducted tours.

Mrs. S. J. Edwards, of St. Louis, one of the party, says that the first troubles came from the fact that the agency assigned one guide and two baggage-men to a party of 180 tourists. The baggage-men insisted on trying to drink all the liquor they saw between London and Italy, and as a result the baggage was hopelessly mixed. The hotels the tourists were assigned to were, for the most part, of such a character and so limited in accommodations that the sightseers suffered all sorts of inconveniences. Parts of their tours which were to be made in carriages had to be taken on foot, and finally, at Maringen, the guide informed them that the managers would have to abandon the tour through lack of funds and the excursionists would have to pay their own fare to Cherbourg.

Then those not supplied with money had to borrow from those better fixed, and the French seaport was reached. Here they were informed that their trunks had been shipped on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, and so the return trip across the ocean was made with simply the clothes they had on their backs when they landed at Cherbourg.

WIND-UP OF THE G. A. R.

Major Ransier, of St. Louis, Elected Commander-in-Chief.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Major Leo Ransier, of St. Louis, has been chosen commander in chief of the G. A. R. without opposition. The other selections were: Vice commander, D. C. Milliken, of Maine; junior vice commander, Frank Seamons, of Tennessee; surgeon general, John A. Wilkins, Delta, O.; chaplain in chief, Rev. A. Dahms, San Quentin, Cal.

Clara Barton, founder of the Red Cross society, received a great ovation, and briefly addressed the old soldiers. Many G. A. R. men are leaving, and the annual gathering was conceded by all to be one of the most agreeable ever held.

Wedded Bliss Was Short—Mrs. Clarke to Receive $28,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 31.—The celebrated Clarke divorce case, which occupied so much time of the Allegheny county courts some months ago, is said to have been settled upon a basis suitable to the interested parties. It is said Mrs. Clarke is to receive $28,000 in cash and separation papers.

Mrs. Clarke is young and beautiful, while Mr. Clarke is the son of the late millionaire, Charles J. Clarke, of this city. Both occupied high positions socially, she in Washington, D. C., and he in Pittsburg. They only lived together a short time after their marriage. Mr. Clarke brought the action on grounds of infidelity.

WILL BE BUSY.

It is Thought This Official Will Certainly Earn His Salary.

The village council of Matamoras, Ohio, has passed an ordinance fixing salary and defining the duties of the person who shall act as their marshal. Said marshal shall receive $1 per day and fees for suppressing all riots and breaches of the peace, serve all notices of the council, mayor and board of health, prosecute all law breakers and violations of all ordinances; attend all sessions of mayor's court, clean the council chamber spittoons and displace all other rubbish therein, notify councilmen of all regular and called meetings and be in attendance thereat, act as ex-official street commissioner and road supervisor, fill with oil, clean chimneys, trim wicks, light and blow out all street lamps, keep the street crossings clean in bad weather and free from obstruction at all times, shall see that all property owners keep weeds and grass free from their pavements or do it himself, cause able-bodied male persons to work the roads or pay $3 cash, and perform all other duties imposed on him by the council.

For failure to perform the above duties, the marshal shall be ousted and the office declared vacant by council and filled in the same manner as other vacancies. We imagine this official would have little time to either whittle or travel on the cars.

LISBON'S POTTERY.

THE PEOPLE ARE URGED TO ACT AT ONCE.

A Liberal Proposition Made by Thomas Bros. is Spoken of by the Buckeye.

In speaking of that proposed pottery for Lisbon the Buckeye State this week says:

It would be useless at this time to indulge in a lengthy homily upon the advantages to be secured by Lisbon in the obtaining of additional industrial enterprises, such as would give employment to added scores and hundreds of men and redound to the general prosperity of the community.

In the days that are past the newspapers of the town have done their full share—perhaps more than their share—in calling the public attention to the benefits sure to follow the exhibition of a spirit of enterprise and progress on the part of the people generally, and especially those who are in a position to profit directly by the encouragement of productive enterprises.

The people of Lisbon have seen other towns grow up around us and prosper to a much greater degree than has Lisbon, although not possessing as great natural advantages as we had. They possessed that however which Lisbon did not, the spirit of public enterprise and material progress. It was this spirit that made the cities of Canton, Youngstown and Akron what they are today, and it would have done the same or more for Lisbon. The past, however, is behind us; the present is with us, and the future yet to come.

The proposition laid before our people by the Thomas Brothers, of East Liverpool, well known and successful pottery operators, with an abundance of capital, to construct and keep in operation a five-kiln pottery plant, employing nearly 200 men, for a cash bonus of $10,000 and a land donation that will bring them an additional $10,000, while it looks like an onerous burden for a town of 4,000 people to assume, is really one of the fairest propositions that have recently been placed before our people. It looks like a large sum of money to raise,

The success of this enterprise will invite others and before many years it will not be necessary for Lisbon to offer bonuses to secure manufacturing enterprises, and the increase in population and capital that this and other enterprises will bring will remove the burdens of that nature.

To the Public.

Owing to the objections of T. & L. Council the employees of the C. C. Thompson Pottery company have decided to postpone the proposed excursion to Cleveland on Labor day, Sept. 3, as it was not promoted with the intention of in any way interfering with the celebration in this city.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

STEPPED FROM A MOVING STREET CAR

Miss Della Barker Almost Lost Her Life on Washington Street Yesterday.

TAKEN TO MR. WELLS' HOME

And Medical Aid Summoned, but the Patient Is Still in a Precarious Condition.

DID NOT LOSE CONSCIOUSNESS

Miss Della Barker met with an accident shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon that may cost the lady her life.

Miss Barker had resided in the city for some time, having come here from East Palestine to work as a domestic in the family of Frank Sebring. Since they removed from the city Miss Barker has been visiting friends about the city, and yesterday had planned a trip to Wellsville and the East End.

She boarded a car at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets. Scarcely had she gotten on when the thought struck her that possibly she would not have time to go both places during the afternoon and started to retrace her steps.

She reached the platform just as the car was opposite the residence of William Wells, and without thinking it necessary to signal the motorman to stop, walked from the step.

The car was going at a rapid rate, and when Miss Barker's foot struck the pavement she was thrown violently to the ground, alighting on the back of her head. A nasty wound was inflicted, which caused the blood to flow from her ears and nose.

The accident was witnessed by a number of people, who hastened to her assistance.

B. E. Gould and Ed Hassey were the first to reach her, and after picking her up, she was carried into the home of Mr. Wells, just opposite.

The injured woman was made as comfortable as possible until Drs. Toot and Shea arrived. After making an examination of the lady's injuries the physicians pronounced the case a serious one, stating that concussion of the brain might result, although very little could be told until today. The most serious trouble seems to lie in the difficulty experienced in stopping the flow of blood from the woman's ears, which has continued since the accident occurred.

No blame is attached to Motorman Davis, as he received no signal to stop, and ran his car as far as Fourth street before he even knew of the happening.

Miss Barker is somewhat better this afternoon, although she is not yet well enough to be moved. Just as soon as she is able to go, probably tomorrow, she will be taken to the home of her sister at the Ross farm, three miles northwest of this city, where she had been visiting previous to coming here a few days ago.

TO THE INFIRMARY.

An Aged Resident of the City Taken to That Institution Yesterday.

Trustee J. W. Albright yesterday took Nellie Bannister to the county infirmary.

The lady has been afflicted with dropsy for some time and the prospects for her recovery were not favorable, so the authorities thought it best to have her removed to that institution without delay, as the facilities for caring for sick people in this city are not good, besides they can be better cared for at much less expense at the infirmary.

HAD NO MONEY.

BUT PROMISED TO PAY HIS FINE YESTERDAY.

But Evidently Forgot and Constable Miller Was Compelled to Remind Him.

Alfred Dozzle, who was fined $1 and costs in the court of Squire McLane for a misdemeanor early last week, was arrested by Constable Miller shortly before noon today and placed in jail.

Dozzle is a colored man and had no money, but a good excuse, and the squire let him go upon the promise that he would call at the office and settle.

Thetime was up last night, and when Miller saw Dozzle this morning he told him that he had forgot to come around, and he told Miller to come to the barber shop on Second street and he would give him the money.

Miller went to the shop and Dozzle told him he had no money and didn't know when he would have any, and didn't think he would pay it.

The constable went to the office of Squire McLane and secured an execution and again went after his man. When he got there Dozzle had started up town and was going along Union street when Miller saw him.

He started after him and captured the fellow at the Central school building. Dozzle thought the weather was too nice to spend his time behind the bars, so he refused to go.

Miller placed the handcuffs on Dozzle, so he then decided that it would be best to go along.

He was taken to city hall and locked up. Unless he puts up the fine and costs he will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow morning.

HACKWORTH-SHANNON.

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING SOL-
EMNIZED YESTERDAY

At the Residence of Mrs. Florence Cunningham, on Fourth Street.
Many Guests.

The home of Mrs. Florence Cunningham, at 228 Fourth street, was last evening the scene of a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being William G. Hackenworth and Miss Marie Shannon, two well known young people of this city.

The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock in the presence of 186 guests, and was performed by Rev. Edwin Weary, of St. Stephen's church, the beautiful ring ceremony of the Episcopal church being used.

The house was profusely and handsomely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and the effect was beautiful.

The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents, and the New Review unites with their many friends in wishing them all the happiness they can have. They will reside in this city.

—Mrs. Margaret Kidder left yesterday for Richmond, Ind., after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Croxall.

Met Last Night and Made Selection of Teachers Who Are to Serve.

NAMES OF THOSE CHOSEN

There Will Be Deep Disappointment Over Some Who Were Dropped

MAY HAVE A REHEARING

The board of examiners met last night and attended to the business entrusted to their care. Mrs. George P. Ikirt, B. C. Simms and Rev. J. R. Greene constituted the board. The examination must have been a severe one, and calculated to raise the standard of the local educators and education in general in our public schools, as many aspirants fell by the wayside, much to their disappointment and chagrin. There is now some talk of a rehearing or reexamination of some of those who failed to secure a position as teacher, and some of the friends of the defeated ones are circulating the report that the examination was altogether too severe along certain lines. Following are the names and length of terms of the fortunate aspirants:

Mary E. Gladden, 1 year.
Alma Croxall, 1 year.
Elmer E. Price, 1 year.
Harriet Andrews, 1 year.
Vada Nease, 1 year.
Janet M. Hill, 1 year.
Mayme Bucher, 1 year.
Ellen Orr, 1 year.
M. A. Clements, 2 years.
W. J. Miller, 2 years.
Maude L. Fisher, 5 years.
Mary Jackman, 5 years.

Rumor has it that one of the stumbling blocks in the way of the defeated candidates was the severity of the test along the line of arithmetic, while another feature was in the matter of penmanship, with occasional lapses in the way of orthography.

These statements are not given along the line of reliable information, but are based on mere rumor. The names of the lucky ones, however, can be depended upon as correct, as they were obtained from reliable authority.

For good and sufficient reasons we do not publish the names of those who failed to win a victory. We understand that teachers of years of experience failed to land a plum in this connection.

SWEET CHARITY.

And the Lovers of Our Common Humanity Are Still With Us.

Yesterday there came into the office of the News Review a farmer from Pennsylvania and left a nice contribution for the India famine sufferers.

On Monday last a lady resident of East Liverpool sent us a donation for the same purpose, her little boy acting as messenger for the occasion.

Today a lady stopped the writer in one of our prominent thoroughfares and gave him a welcome donation for the starving ones, remarking:

"I have been looking for you. Please forward with your other contributions, and don't mention my name."

Each donor desired that no publicity should be given to their names. And this is the rule of the givers. They seem to give from the heart, with the idea of helping others and making their pathway brighter. God has promised a sure reward to the cheerful giver. You have an opportunity to obtain a share in this reward.

By Traveling Passenger Agent F. B. Sankey, Who Was Here Today.

Although the Promoters Deny That It Was Their Intention to Injure the Celebration.

ANOTHER DATE TO BE FIXED

Traveling Passenger Agent T. B. Sankey was here from Pittsburg this morning, and after conferring with the parties having in charge the celebration of Labor day and those of the employees of Thompson's pottery who proposed conducting an excursion to Cleveland on Monday, decided to cancel the trip to Cleveland.

This is brought about in the main by the opposition to the excursion on the part of Trades and Labor Council, who, at their meeting Wednesday, passed a resolution declaring it a scheme on the part of the promoters to injure the success of the celebration here.

The employees of the Thompson factory declare that they had no such intention when the movement was started, as the idea of Labor day was a time for laboring men to enjoy themselves, and in their estimation the day could be better enjoyed in Cleveland than here. They have therefore decided to postpone the trip until some time in the near future when there will be no opposition and the prospects are better for a good attendance.

A CONFERENCE

Was Held Between the Committee of Trades Council and Mr. Patterson Last Night.

Although a meeting was held last night at which a part of Trades Council's committee and Monroe Patterson were present, no propositions were made, and no definite conclusions arrived at.

The grievance committee report that it will be necessary to again confer with the machinists' organization before it can be definitely decided what the course will be in the future.

Mr. Patterson's position does not differ materially from the attitude assumed by that gentleman from the start, and it is not known even by those directly concerned what the outcome will be.

WAREHOUSE WOMEN

Met in Regular Session Last Night And Adopted a Strong Resolution.

The biscuit warehouse women met in regular session last night, a good attendance being present.

Several matters of importance were disposed of and a strong resolution was passed urging all the members to remain in the city on Labor day, and branding as unfair the movement to take an excursion from this city on that day.

The organization decided to turn out in the parade in carriages and made arrangements for the hire of a sufficient number of rigs to accommodate the entire membership.

MORE OBSTACLES TO THE SCALE

Difficulties Among Kilnmen are Now Recognized by Manufacturer's Committee.

THEY WILL MEET SOON

Vice President Hutchins Says the Agitation For the New Scale
Will Be Continued.

Trenton True American.

The pottery situation is at a standstill, and the executive board is still patiently waiting for the committee
of the manufacturers to get together.

The board appears to have every confidence that the scale will be put
in operation here before many weeks.

It has been the opinion of those in touch with the situation that there would be mighty little more heard of
the new scale hereabouts.

Frank Hutchins, the national vice president of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, said yesterday:

"The members of the executive board have the utmost confidence that the new scale will be put in force
here.

"The executive board has done its work toward putting the scale in force,
and now the matter rests with President Hughes and the committee on labor from the manufacturers.

"We paved the way by getting the
kilnmen and pressers to accept the scale, subject to certain conditions.

"These conditions were set forth in a set of resolutions which we forwarded to the manufacturers.

"This was more than a month ago,
and they have taken no action on
them.

"President Hughes got tired waiting for them to call a meeting and
he went home, and he is at present
employed adjusting some slight differences among the potters in the west.

"If the manufacturers are sincere
in wanting the scale put into operation
the only thing they have to do is to call a conference and Mr. Hughes will come east at once."

Daniel Willets and John A. Campbell, whose absence from the city has made it impossible for the committee
on labor of the manufacturers to meet
and take action on the kilnmen's resolutions, have returned home.

Mr. Campbell said yesterday that he did not think the committee would be able to get together for a day or two.

He also said that it is impossible to
take any action on the kilnmen's resolution at once, owing to some dissatisfaction existing within that organization.

CROSSLEY DENIES IT.

Says He Never Made the Statement
That the Potters of Trenton Were Lazy.

Joseph Crossley writing to a Tren-

"Mr. Editor—In answer to an article clipped from the East Liverpool Crisis, and printed in your paper of August 20, would say that the statement is absolutely false. I know nothing about the troubles existing between the potters and manufacturers. Yours very truly.

DISGRACEFUL.

A High Old Time Was Had With the Funds Collected for the Boers.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—(Special Correspondence.)—For the past few weeks the Washington public has been highly entertained by a serio-comic fight in the camp of the gentlemen who so loudly proclaim their monopoly of the good motives of the universe. The occasion of this ludicrous jumble was furnished by the recent visit of the Boer delegates to the capital.

When it was positively known that they were coming, it was the intention of the citizens, irrespective of party, to tender them a proper reception. However, before a meeting could be called by the representative business men of Washington the irrepressible Hon. William Sulzer, the Tammany congressman who revolves like a pin-wheel, bobbed up and seized upon the undertaking.

It appears that Sulzer had taken the precaution to have some correspondence with the Boer officials, and this, according to the East Side mode of reasoning, clearly entitled him to pitch in and become the whole thing. He called a meeting that was composed largely of gentlemen of the Sulzer calibre, and from which the substantial citizens of Washington remained studiously away. Sulzer was chosen as chairman of the committee to receive the Boers and was clothed with extraordinary power. He appointed the sub-committees, arranged the program for the reception and public meeting, and the hand of the Tammany statesman was to be found in all the most important details. It was to be a Sulzerite affair from start to finish.

By this time it was plain to be seen that the affair was being utilized as a Democratic campaign card. Democratic senators and representatives were selected as vice presidents and orators for the meeting, but the programs were so carefully arranged that at each of these functions Mr. Sulzer was the principal orator. All the other orators evolved around the Tammany congressman and at every turn the Boer delegates made they bumped into a large chunk of the eloquence that made Sulzer famous.

The climax came the night the meeting was held in the Grand Opera House. Sulzer was in his glory and the only person who approached him was the Hon. Webster Davis, who was fresh from his famous exploits in South Africa. It was upon this occasion Mr. Davis paid his much talked of eulogy to former Consul Macrum and recited his thrilling experience with the "horse dragoons." The speeches of Sulzer, Davis, the Hon. "Windy" Allen, of Nebraska, and a few of the lesser lights were touching, and that was just what they were intended to be.

After the speeches were well under way Mr. Sulzer announced that a collection for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the Boer soldiers would be taken up, and he immediately called for subscriptions, leading off himself with a liberal sum. Repeatedly would Sulzer call the names of members of the audience and suggest that they contribute. Placed in such uncomfortable positions there was nothing for them to do but "shell out," and when the sand bagging process had been completed it was supposed that the widows and orphans of the Boers would be the recipients of over $1,800. The meeting was voted a success from a financial standpoint and the Boer delegates appeared to be highly pleased over the showing of substantial sympathy.

But it is the sequel that amuses. By this time the pro-Boer movement in Washington had degenerated openly into a Democratic, anti-expansion and Bryan side show and the Bryanites were whooping it up to the best of their ability. However, there was some degree of satisfaction to be found in the fact that $1,800 had been raised for the distressed families of the Boer soldiers, and the thought that they were to be relieved even to that extent was pleasing.

Mr. Sulzer, by reason of his position as supreme dictator, was made the custodian and disbursing agent of the fund and was authorized to apply the same to the suffering Boers as his judgment should dictate. How well he did this is shown by the report of the committee appointed to investigate the affair.

Dr. W. A. Croffut is one of the most rampant of the local anti-expansionists. He also makes a specialty of pro-Boer sympathies. Being an all-around anti-administration man, the doctor entered heartily into the reception to the delegates from South Africa, believing that considerable Democratic capital might be made out of the affair if it were only properly worked. However, the doctor is not an ardent admirer of Sulzer, and a short time ago he took it upon himself to make inquiry as to the number of Boer widows and orphans relieved by the $1,800 fund.

A little investigation convinced Dr. Croffut that none of the money had been expended as its donors intended it should be and he openly charged that it had been diverted. This led to a call for a meeting of the Sulzer committee.

At that time the busy Tammany statesman was engaged in circulating between Lincoln and Kansas City in his memorable candidacy for the vice presidential nomination and his admirers declared that Croffut's charges

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE

CASH OR CREDIT

were but the outcome of a deep-laid plot of the trusts and English money to bring about Sulzer's defeat. But Croffut is a persistent person and continued to insist that there was something wrong.

Finally he succeeded in securing a report which showed that, after the expense of the Grand Opera House meeting had been paid and a few incidentals liquidated, the sum of $18 and a few odd cents remained for the Boer widows and orphans.

It was under the cover of "incidentals" the richness was found. Under this head railway fares, hotel bills and livery bills for Tammany politicians were paid.

But the greatest of all were the wine bills.

It is no wonder that the $1,800 subscription was made to melt so rapidly. When a Tammany statesman undertakes to quench his thirst for liquor something is bound to give away, and in this particular case it was the fund for the widows and orphans of the Boer soldiers that vanished.

According to the report of the auditing committee the Washington reception to the Boer delegates was a disgraceful debauch and the gentlemen who traveled in good faith from South Africa to the capital were imposed upon in the most shameful manner.

Dr. Croffut is an ardent supporter of Mr. Bryan, but he denounces the conduct of the Democratic politicians in the most emphatic language.

Up to the present time the $18 and few odd cents remain in the hands of the treasurer of the committee, subject to the order of Mr. Sulzer. After this shall have been disposed of another incident in Democratic sympathy for down trodden humanity may be considered as closed.

HEROIC SOLDIERS.

The Peking rescuers did heroic service and the world at large is giving them full praise therefor. The United States will fittingly reward her heroes.

BIG ODDS.

On one train leaving Chicago on Thursday of this week, the straw vote showed 300 for McKinley and one vote for Bryan. It was a western contingent. The writer came out on a train which showed 140 for McKinley, 17 for Bryan and 6 not voting.

CHINA.

Russia's peace plan has favor with Russia, Great Britain, France, Japan and the United States. Germany and Italy oppose at present, but will likely fall into line. The outlook is for an amicable settlement of existing difficulties.

HEROIC DEFENSE.

As the particulars of the siege at Peking come to the front, they demonstrate the fact that the very highest order of gallantry and pluck held sway in the hearts and lives of the besieged. The odds were immense; but, nothing daunted, the heroes and heroines each bore their full part in standing off the rushes of the savage Boxers, and the execution in the ranks of the latter finally caused the enemy to retreat in dismay. As the hoodlums of our streets say, in their expressive language: "Them Boxers went up against the hot stuff and got left."

EX-PRISONERS OF WAR.

There was an intensely interesting session of the ex-prisoners of war held in room 307, court house, Chicago, on Wednesday, August 29, at 2 p. m. Commander Atwell has served two years. He is a Pittburger and has worked heroically and intelligently for the benefit of his comrades. Washington city has refused to do anything along the line of benefits for the ex-prisoners, despite the earnest work done. The bill to grant each ex-prisoner the sum of $2 per day for the time he was held in the hands of the Confederacy passed the lower house, but was squelched in the upper. The main opposition rests in the plea that such a measure would take too much money out of the treasury. Comrade Atwell and Comrade Seeley were candidates for commander for the ensuing year. Comrade Seely withdrew and Comrade Atwell was made the unanimous choice of the delegates. A legislative committee was appointed, consisting of Walker, Pittsburg; Ferguson, Iowa, and Palmer, East Liverpool, the latter being made chairman. The instructions to the committee, by the association, is that the pension matter shall be pushed to the front in every honorable and legitimate manner. There is to be no begging done—no charity asked for. The old veterans claim that they have a legitimate right to the remuneration asked for, and they intend that the nation at large shall know the reason for the claim they will make. All men acquainted with the situation of the prisoners at Libby, Bell Island, Castle Thunder, Florence, Milan, Andersonville, Saulsbury,

D. M. Ogilvie & Co.

Charleston Jail Yard, Savannah, and other southern prisons, during the war, know full well that it required far more bravery and true courage to stand loyal to the flag than it did to face serried lines of riflemen, charge a battery or storm an earthwork. Men on every hand refused to work for the confederates, thus letting a confederate go to the front, despite the offer of good food, good clothing and liberty, preferring starvation and death to disloyalty and dishonor. Further, the men who served long terms in these dens of misery, were in very many instances physically ruined for life. This people of this nation, fair always, and always admiring pluck, courage, loyalty and devotion to Old Glory, will yet reward the veterans who are still in existence. Our legislators will be forced, by the people, to acknowledge and satisfy the claim.

MRS. SARAH SMITH WANTS A DIVORCE

Alleges Her Husband Abused
Her, and After Destroying
Her Clothes

HE CRUELLY DESERTED HER

An Administrator Appointed and
a Guardian Ordered to Sell
Property.

LIVERPOOL PEOPLE WILL WED

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—Mrs. Sarah M. Smith, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in common pleas court asking a divorce from her husband, James B. Smith, together with the custody of their minor daughter.

The couple were married in Steubenville in November, 1894, and have two children. Mrs. Smith says her husband has frequently abused her, and when she went to visit her parents in Empire last Easter he had destroyed every particle of clothing she had left behind, along with what little furniture there was about the house. He then deserted her.

Smith has since been working in the tile works at that place.

Joseph Johnson was today appointed administrator of the estate of the late Eliza Porter, of Knox township.

John W. Johnson, guardian of Ola B. Marshall, was authorized by the court to sell a lot in Wellsville at private sale.

A Couple of Licenses.

Permission has been granted two Liverpool couples to wed, as follows:

Edward F. Harmon and Miss Minnie M. Tice; John A. Leigh and Miss Fannie B. Teneych.

A Marriage License.

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—A license has been granted to Fred O. Harrison of East Rochester, and Miss Rachel C. Brogan, of Green Hill.

PINEY FORK.

This Church Was a Century Old This Week and Celebrated the Occasion.

Following is the record made by one of the most prosperous congregations of the Steubenville presbytery. Revs. Taggart and Gillis were present from this city at the celebration this week:

Piney Fork church was founded in 1800 by Rev. Alexander Calderhead, who died in January, 1812, after being pastor 10 years. He was the only minister of the Social Reform church north of the Ohio river for about 10 years, and after his death Rev. George Buchanan, father of Rev. Joseph Buchanan, of this city, was the only Social Reform church minister on the north side of the Ohio.

Rev. John Walker settled in Cadiz and preached in Piney Fork, succeeding Rev. Calderhead. Rev. Walker was succeeded in 1821 by Rev. Thomas Hanna, who preached in Cadiz and Piney Fork.

About 1837 Rev. Hanna left Piney Fork and the charge was taken by Rev. Joseph Clokey. In 1840 Mr. Clokey left because of Judge McNarry voting for the Black Laws, and soon after he joined the Social Reform church.

The congregation followed Rev. Clokey's example, and they too joined the Social Reform church. He then remained as pastor until 1845 and was succeeded by Rev. J. M. Jamieson, now of Hopedale, who was installed in 1860 and continued as pastor 28 years.

He was followed by Rev. K. W. McFarland, who resigned his charge after a short time to go as a missionary to Egypt. Rev. J. D. Oldman succeeded Rev. McFarland and he in turn was succeeded by Rev. D. J. White, who was installed Tuesday afternoon. The present handsome church was built in 1886.

Boys, school begins next Tuesday, and we have inaugurated a special sale for your benefit. After two or three months of running, jumping and a good time in general, you need a new suit. All of our suits are reduced in price: $6.00 to $5.00; $5.00 to $4.00; $4.00 to $3.00; $3.50 to $2.75; $2.50 to $1.75; $2.00 to $1.50. Tell your mother all about this sale and tell her to come to our store for your school suit.

JOSEPH BROS.

Like Unto Jeff Davis.

Mr. Bryan's Ohio managers who assume that the Democratic candidate is a consistent spokesman of and believer in Lincoln's creed should remember that Jefferson Davis also invoked the constitution and the Declaration of Independence in his message to the confederate congress, and that a large majority of the Democrats of the United States stood with him. The mere carrying around of a copy of the Declaration of Independence and quoting from it doesn't make a man the only patriot in the country.

EAST END.

In Carman's Court.

The case of C. Reed McDaniel versus E. J. and Mary Owen for $26, claimed due for groceries sold and delivered, was up for trial in the court of Justice Carman yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Owen, with her attorney, H. E. Grosshans, were present, but the other defendant failed to put in an appearance. The case was brought for the purpose of recovering judgment for the above amount, which was contracted by Mrs. Owen and which her husband refused to pay.

The defendants have not been living together, and Mr. Owen makes the claim that he is not responsible for any debts contracted by his wife.

Justice Carman has reserved his decision until this evening.

THE SIEGE OF PEKING.

A Medal Will Be Struck In Its Commemoration.

"MEN, NOT WALLS, MAKE A CITY."

Where, a Few Days Since, Anxiety Reigned, Now All Is Tumultuous Joy. Handful of Enlightened Christians Kept Back Hordes of Barbarians.

Peking, Aug. 14, by post via Tien Tsin.—A medal will be struck commemorating the siege of Peking. It will bear the legend, "Men, Not Walls, Make a City."

In the grounds of the British legation, where a handful of men withstood the millions of the Chinese capital for 56 days, a memorable celebration is in progress tonight in vindication of that principle. Missionaries assembled about Bell Tower singing the Doxology. Rockets are blazing; soldiers and civilians of all nationalities are fraternizing; the women are applauding the sound of the cannon that are smashing the yellow roofs of the Forbidden City.

The tired Sikhs are planting their tents on the lawn, and the American and Russian contingents are lighting campfires along the stretch of turf extending beyond the Tartar wall.

Through the ruins of the foreign settlement an eager, cosmopolitan crowd is jostling. Indians, Cossacks, legation ladies, diplomats, Americans from the Philippines and French disciplinarians from Saigon (who kept discreetly to the rear while the fighting was in progress, but came conspicuously to the front when looting began.) Only the Japanese, who have earned first place, are absent.

Resident foreigners welcome the luxury of walking about and immunity from bullets. The newcomers are anxious to inspect the evidences of a historic defense. The barricades are, after all, the most wonderful sight in Peking. The barriers hedging the British legation are a marvel of stone and brick walls and earthworks. Sandbags shield every foot of space. The tops of the walls have niches for the riflemen and the buildings at their porticos and windows have armor boxes, bags stuffed with dirt and pillows, too.

Back of the nited States legation is a work named "Fort Myers," which the marines held, completely screening both sides of the walls with steps leading to it. There is a loopholed barrier across the wall which faces a similar Chinese work a few yards away. Another wall bars Legation street in front of the German legation, and, confronting the enemy's barricades within those limits, are yet more walls, enabling the foreigners to contract the area of defense if pressed.

The tops of the American and British buildings were badly torn by the Chinese shells. The rest of the foreign settlement was almost demolished. Ten thousand eight hundred shells fell there during the first three weeks of the bombardment, 400 in one day. Buckets of bullets were gathered in the grounds.

Four hundred and fourteen people lived in the compound through the greater part of the siege. Three hundred and four marines, assisted by 85 volunteers, commanded by the English captain, Poole, defended the place. Eleven civilians were killed and 19 wounded. Fifty-four marines and sailors were killed and 112 wounded.

NEARLY ALL FOR PEACE.

Five of the Great Powers Agree With Russia—Two Oppose.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Five powers have agreed to Russia's proposition to withdraw troops from Peking and two have announced opposition to its adoption. Four powers have finally declared that Li Hung Chang is acceptable to them as peace envoy for China, two question not only Li's credentials but the power of the imperial government to approve his acts, and one wishes to know more about the credentials he holds before it is willing to treat through him.

FLAG CONSECRATION DAY.

Stirring Philippine by a German Preacher. Little Politics Mixed In.

Berlin, Aug. 31.—The flag consecration Thursday was a much more elaborate ceremony than usual, owing to the fact that the flags for the China regiments were included. Pastor Woelfling delivered the consecration address. Pointing to the flaring cross in the folds of a flag he said: "It is a crusade. It is a holy war. International law has been broken, and the laws of humanity have been trodden under foot. Oriental barbarism has risen against Occidental civilization."

Thursday's papers reprint a London dispatch from Washington saying that the United States government addressed a circular to the powers, Aug. 24, regarding their future policy in China and also that the powers answered changing their present policy, but that they could see no reason for was unable to discuss future plans until full reports had been received from their diplomatic representatives regarding the political situation. A high official of the German foreign office, whose attention was called to the dispatch, said the statement was not correct in the form in which it appeared.

IT WAS REALLY BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Result of Examination—Ships From Glasgow to Be Quarantined.

Glasgow, Aug. 31.—The post mortem examination of the body of the person who died from the plague Aug. 27 establishes the disease as bubonic plague. This has been officially announced by Dr. Chalmers, the chief medical officer, and is supported by Professor Muir and Dr. Brownlie.

The foreign consuls are in communication with the medical authorities, and all Glasgow ships may be quarantined.

A MESSAGE FROM CONGER.

More Russian, German, French and Italian Troops Arrive at Peking.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The state department has made public the following telegram from Minister Conger, received through United States Consul Fowler, at Che Foo:

"Secretary of State, Washington: 'From Che Foo, Received Aug. 30, 6:44 a. m.—30th—Following received yesterday: 'More Russian, German, French and Italian troops arriving. Imperial palace will be entered Aug. 28, and a military promenade of all nations will be made through it. Afterward it will be closed and guarded. Prince Ching is expected in a few days.'—Conger."

Following is the state department comment on the above: Mr. Fowler's prefatory statement that Mr. Conger's dispatch is dated "yesterday" (Aug. 29) probably refers to the Taku date line on the message as received by him at Che Foo.

UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA.

Wu Hopes They Will Work Together to Bring About Peace.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister to this country, passed through this city on his way from Washington to Cape May. He expressed the opinion that the difficulty over the arrangement for peace negotiations will be adjusted satisfactorily. He said:

"I sincerely hope and believe that the United States and Russia are together in their efforts to bring about peace in my country, and I firmly hope and pray that the other powers will see the wisdom and importance of uniting in the interests of peace."

TOO, TOO GENEROUS BOERS.

They Release British Prisoners, Who Will Rejoin Lord Roberts.

Lorenzo Marques, Aug. 31.—The British prisoners at Mooit Gedbach (on the railroad east of Machadodorp) have been released by the Boers, and are marching to join Lord Roberts' forces at Watervalhoen, near Machadodorp.

Mafeking, Aug. 31.—A cyclone that visited Mafeking Wednesday evening did more damage than the seven months' bombardment. It blew down or unroofed numerous buildings and leveled the military camp hospital, causing much suffering among the sick and wounded. One person was killed and two were injured and there were many narrow escapes.

Of Interest to Labor Organizations.

London, Aug. 31.—A verdict against picketing during strikes was rendered by Justice Farwell, of the high court of justice, who enjoined General Secretary Bell, of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, and Organizing Secretary Holmes from watching and besetting the Great Western railroad stations and approaches with the view of inducing non-unionists to refrain from taking the places of Taff Vale railroad strikers.

Troubles of an Elopement Doctor.

Philadelphia, Aug. 31.—Dr. Howard Wilkinson, of Dover, Del., who recently ran away with Miss Josephine Packard, his wife's sister, the elopement causing a widespread sensation, is in the city. He expresses his intention to leave for El Paso, Tex., at the end of the week in hopes of recuperating his health. He said he was disgusted, and accused the Packards of persecuting him in various ways.

WORKING FOR PEACE.

United States and Russia Are Side by Side.

THEIR INFLUENCE WILL BE FELT.

After Order in China Is Established Other Questions Will Be Rapidly Disposed Of—Li Hung Chang May Yet Prove an Important Factor in the Negotiations.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The United States government, having acted upon the Russian proposition as to the withdrawal of troops from Peking, is now quietly waiting for responses to the notes which have been sent to our various representatives abroad for presentation to the powers. Judging by the rate of progress made in the preceding negotiations several days and perhaps a week may pass before all of these replies are received. According to their formal expressions, all of the powers are agreed upon this one point—they do not desire to enter upon a formal war upon China. The United States government is trying to bring about this result.

For the moment it finds itself side by side with Russia, whose earnestness cannot be questioned at this time. The object now in view is to bring about a situation in China that will admit of the beginning of negotiations looking to the re-establishment of order and the cessation of hostilities, the insurance of protection to foreign life and property. After that the negotiations may touch upon other questions that remain to be settled. It is with this object that Russia has suggested the withdrawal from Peking, in order that the Chinese government may resume the reins of power, for the Chinese people, being guided by externals, are not apt to yield fealty to a government not in the possession of its own capital. The United States government has been earnestly championing the cause of Li Hung Chang from a precisely similar motive, namely, a desire to speedily rehabilitate the Chinese government in order that it may carry out its expressed desire to settle the difficulties which have arisen. This has been the object of the negotiations of the last few days, and the Russian note and the United States response were but the parts of the general plan.

In responding to the Russian note as it did, the United States government availed itself of the opportunity of directly inviting the remaining powers to express their desires in the matter of a settlement, or, rather, to indicate how, in their judgment, peace negotiations could be thus instituted. This note is calculated to secure a full disclosure of the intentions of the powers, if the inquiry is met by them in the frank spirit in which it was conceived by the United States government. The difficulty apprehended now in reaching a settlement lies in the intentional delay and procrastination on the part of any power which is concealing its true purpose, and does not desire to avoid a formal war.

The state department is already embarrassed in securing responses to its note challenging the production of objections to Li Hung Chang. It appears that much confusion exists at Taku as to what actually had been decided upon respecting the treatment of Li Hung Chang, should he arrive at that place en route to Peking. The reports of the naval commanders to their governments rather increased the confusion in an international sense. Admiral Remy found it difficult to sift out the facts at Taku. Now the state department finds the replies so far received from Europe vague and unsatisfactory, from the reason that the various governments appear to have different understandings as to the exact conditions at Taku.

Matters Soon to Be Adjusted.

It could not be learned from whom replies were received and which were missing, but it can be stated that at present the question as to the acceptability of Earl Li as an envoy and his freedom from interference remain unsettled. The advance of the Russian proposition may reduce the importance of the other questions, for with the return of the Chinese government to Peking the smaller matters of the personalities of the envoys and the sufficiency of credentials could be speedily adjusted. Altogether, the opinion among the members of the administration here is that the Russian move has been made directly for an earlier settlement of the Chinese difficulties than seemed possible a few days ago.

Secretary Root, in speaking yesterday of the statement in the Conger dispatch, saying that Prince Ching was coming to Peking, said that it was a favorable indication. Prince Ching has been friendly to the foreigners and has been among the more progressive of the Chinese officials. It was also stated that the condition seemed to be improving. So far no orders have been issued directing the return of the United States troops from China or their removal from Peking to Tien Tsin or to any other point on the seacoast.

It is still the policy of the United States, as expressed in the note of July 3, to secure order in China. If there should appear in Peking members of the Chinese government who were duly authorized to organize a government, and could do so, with the prospect of restoring order throughout the empire, it would be considered a movement on the part of China toward carrying out the demands of the United States. This government might then consider the advisability of withdrawing troops from the capital, especially if this action would tend toward the pacification of China.

The state department received a telegram from its special commissioner to investigate and report upon conditions in China, Mr. W. W. Rockhill, dated at Shanghai, Aug. 30, saying that he was about to leave for Peking.

The Market Fluctuated—Money Rates Will Not Go Any Higher.

New York, Aug. 31.—The early promise of strength in the stock market Thursday was not maintained, and after a brief period of some activity and firmness prices began to decline again and the trading tumbled down to the insignificant proportions which have become the recent normal. The steel group especially disappointed the hopes that a bull movement was under way, by developing heavy tone. Steel and Wire falling back over a point. The American Tinplate and the American Hoop stocks were exceptions and show good gains for the day. There was no news to account for the release in the group, the reports at hand showing a growing demand for many grades of iron products. There was a desultory speculation in Sugar, which lifted it at one time over a point after the announcement was made of an advance in the price of refined sugar. But the gain was almost entirely wiped out by the time the market closed. There was nothing in the money market to give color to any apprehension of higher rates. The banks have gained upward of $2,000,000 from the sub-treasury and another substantial increase in reserves is indicated for the week. The market closed dull and heavy at a generally lower level of prices.

Bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,175,000. U. S. refunding 2s, when issued, and the new 4s declined 1/4 per cent in the bid price.

Mills to Resume Operations.

Pottstown, Pa., Aug. 31.—The Hope mill, the Glasgow mill and eight new furnaces in the nail works puddle mill, conducted by the Glasgow Iron company, will resume operations next Monday, after a long idleness. They will employ 300 puddlers and helpers. Potts Brothers' rolling mill, which has been idle for three months, will also resume next week, employing 300 men.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

JAMES S. ROBINSON.

General James S. Robinson of Kenton, Hardin county, was born on a farm in Richland county, Ohio, near Mansfield, Oct. 14, 1827. He worked on a farm, received a common school education, learned the trade of printing, and on the 31st of December, 1845, removed to Kenton, and in January, 1846, established the Kenton Republican, of which he was editor and proprietor until 1864.

He was elected clerk of the Ohio house of representatives in 1856, and was re-elected to the same position in 1858. On the 18th of April, 1861, he enlisted in Company G of the Fourth Ohio Volunteer infantry. He was commissioned first lieutenant and promoted to captain, and played a conspicuous part in the battle of Rich mountain, under General George B. McClellan, Oct. 26, 1861. He was promoted to major of the Eighty-second Ohio, and to lieutenant colonel in April, 1862, and was made colonel of the regiment in August of the same year. He was brevetted brigadier general Dec. 14, 1864, and appointed to that rank Jan. 12, 1865, and brevetted a major general March 3, 1865.

He was severely wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, and participated in the battles of Rich Mountain, Cross Keys, Second Bull Run, Chancellorsville, Resaca, Dallas, New Hope Church, Cul's Farm, Peach Tree Creek, Savannah, Arvelyeon and Bentonville.

He was a leading Republican and was chairman of the Republican state executive committee for many years, subsequent to 1877. In 1880 he was appointed commissioner of railroads and telegraphs and held the position for one year. In 1880 he was elected to the Forty-seventh congress from the Ninth district, Hardin, Marion, Delaware, Union, Morrow and Knox counties. In 1882 he was elected to the Forty-eighth congress from the Ninth district, composed of the same counties.

He was elected secretary of state in 1884, defeating James W. Newman by a vote of 391,597 to 380,355, and was re-elected to the same office in 1886 over John McBride by a vote of 341,095 to 329,314. General Robinson was a man of marked ability. He died at Kenton at the age of 70 years.

GEORGE WASHINGTON GEDDES.

George W. Geddes of Mansfield was born at Mount Vernon, Ohio, July 16, 1824; received a common school education; studied law in the office of Hon. Columbus Delano, and was admitted to the bar in July, 1845, and was continuously engaged in the business of the profession till his demise; was elected judge of the court of common pleas of the Sixth judicial district in 1856, and re-elected without opposition in 1861; after serving ten years on the bench he returned to the practice until 1868, when he was again elected judge of the same court for five years, at the expiration of which time he again returned to the practice; was the Democratic candidate for supreme judge in 1871.

He was elected to the Forty-sixth congress in 1878 from the Fifteenth district, Richland, Knox, Holmes, Coshocton and Tuscarawas. In 1880 he was elected to the Forty-seventh congress from the Fourteenth district, Richland, Ashland, Holmes, Wyandot and Crawford; to the Forty-eighth in 1882 from the Fourteenth district, then composed of the counties of Richland, Ashland, Huron and Lorain, and to the Forty-ninth in 1884 from the Sixteenth district, Richland, Holmes, Lorain, Huron and Ashland. Mr. Geddes was an aggressive and consistent Democrat.

JONATHAN T. UPDEGRAFF.

Dr. Jonathan T. Updegraff of Mount Pleasant was born in Jefferson county, Ohio; was educated in the common schools and at Franklin college in that state; is a farmer and physician; worked on a farm until nineteen years of age; studied medicine and graduated at the University of Pennsylvania, and afterward at the medical schools of Edinburgh and Paris.

Dr. Updegraff was a Republican and one of the leaders of his party in the eastern part of the state, and was a very successful organizer of political campaigns. He was a member of the senate in the Sixtieth general assembly.

In 1878 he was elected to the Forty-sixth congress from the Eighteenth district, Jefferson, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison and Belmont counties. In 1880 he was chosen from the Sixteenth district, composed of the counties of Jefferson, Harrison, Belmont, Guernsey and Noble. He served but a portion of his second term, dying somewhat unexpectedly in 1881, and was succeeded by Joseph D. Taylor of Guernsey county.

HENRY L. MOREY.

Henry Lee Morey of Hamilton, Butler county, was born on a Butler county farm, April 8, 1841. He received his education in the common schools and a local academy at the village of Rising Sun, and afterward entered Miami university at Oxford. With the commencement of the civil war in 1861 he left the university, as a member of the University Rifles, a military organization which was attached to the Twentieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served an enlistment of three months in West Virginia. He then enlisted in the Seventy-fifth Ohio for the term of three years, and served under Generals Schenck in West Virginia, Sigel in the Valley of Virginia, Pope and Hatch in Florida and Gillmore at the siege of Charleston.

He was promoted to corporal, sergeant, second lieutenant, first lieutenant and captain, and was mustered out at the end of his enlistment with the latter grade. He then studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1867, and began the practice in Hamilton, where he has a large practice in 1899.

He was elected city solicitor in 1871, and was re-elected. In 1873 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Butler county. In 1875 he was the Republican candidate for the state senate on the Republican ticket and was defeated. He was elected to the Forty-seventh congress in 1880 from the Third district, Butler, Warren, Clinton, Fayette and Clermont counties. He was declared elected to the Forty-eighth congress in 1882 from the Seventh district, Butler, Greene, Warren and Clermont counties, but was unseated upon the contest of James E. Campbell.

In 1888 he was elected to the Fifty-first congress from the Seventh district, composed of Butler, Greene, Clermont and Warren. His record in congress was highly creditable. He is, in 1899, one of the recognized Republican leaders of the state.

WERE IN HARD LUCK.

SPENT THEIR MONEY TOO RAPIDLY.

Many Tales of Woe Unfolded—Trunks Were Lost and They Arrived in New York Without Even a Change of Linen. Sightseers Suffered All Sorts of Trouble.

New York, Aug. 31.—Many of the 420 Christian Endeavorers who reached this port from Europe yesterday on the North German Lloyd steamer Aller are unable to proceed to their homes by reason of lack of funds. Neither had any of the 420 any baggage when they arrived, lacking even a change of linen. They tell harrowing stories of their experiences abroad. They report the continent of Europe to be dotted with ill-used Christian Endeavor tourists.

Two thousand Endeavorers sailed from this port on July 4 by the steamer Trave. The contingent just arrived on the Aller is the advance guard of the army of hard luck that is returning from the continent as fast as "money from home" will bring them from interior points to Cherbourg or Southampton, where they meet the steamers. Their passage home has been paid. The pilgrims on the Aller were from Philadelphia, Maryland, St. Louis, Memphis and other points in the south and west.

The majority of them are strangers in New York, awaiting remittances to take them home. They are well-to-do persons at that. Last June they paid from $300 to $500 to a tourist agency to take them to London for the international convention of Endeavorers and from there across the continent on various personally conducted tours.

Mrs. S. J. Edwards, of St. Louis, one of the party, says that the first troubles came from the fact that the agency assigned one guide and two baggage men to a party of 180 tourists. The baggage men insisted on trying to drink all the liquor they saw between London and Italy, and as a result the baggage was hopelessly mixed. The hotels the tourists were assigned to were, for the most part, of such a character and so limited in accommodations that the sightseers suffered all sorts of inconveniences. Parts of their tours which were to be made in carriages had to be taken on foot, and finally, at Maringen, the guide informed them that the managers would have to abandon the tour through lack of funds and the excursionists would have to pay their own fare to Cherbourg.

Then those not supplied with money had to borrow from those better fixed, and the French seaport was reached. Here they were informed that their trunks had been shipped on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, and so the return trip across the ocean was made with simply the clothes they had on their backs when they landed at Cherbourg.

WIND-UP OF THE G. A. R.

Major Ransieur, of St. Louis, Elected Commander-in-Chief.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Major Leo Ransieur, of St. Louis, has been chosen commander in chief of the G. A. R. without opposition. The other selections were: Vice commander, D. C. Milliken, of Maine; junior vice commander, Frank Seamons, of Tennessee; surgeon general, John A. Wilkins, Delta, O.; chaplain in chief, Rev. A. Drahms, San Quentin, Cal. Clara Barton, founder of the Red Cross society, received a great ovation, and briefly addressed the old soldiers. Many G. A. R. men are leaving, and the annual gathering was conceded by all to be one of the most agreeable ever held.

CELEBRATED DIVORCE CASE.

Wedded Bliss Was Short—Mrs. Clarke to Receive $28,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 31.—The celebrated Clarke divorce case, which occupied so much time of the Allegheny county courts some months ago, is said to have been settled upon a basis suitable to the interested parties. It is said Mrs. Clarke is to receive $28,000 in cash and separation papers.

Mrs. Clarke is young and beautiful, while Mr. Clarke is the son of the late millionaire, Charles J. Clarke, of this city. Both occupied high positions socially, she in Washington, D. C., and he in Pittsburg. They only lived together a short time after their marriage. Mr. Clarke brought the action on grounds of infidelity.

WILL BE BUSY.

It is Thought This Official Will Certainly Earn His Salary.

The village council of Matamoras, Ohio, has passed an ordinance fixing salary and defining the duties of the person who shall act as their marshal. Said marshal shall receive $1 per day and fees for suppressing all riots and breaches of the peace, serve all notices of the council, mayor and board of health, prosecute all law breakers and violations of all ordinances; attend all sessions of mayor's court, clean the council chamber spittoons and displace all other rubbish therein, notify councilmen of all regular and called meetings and be in attendance thereat, act as ex-official street commissioner and road supervisor, fill with oil, clean chimneys, trim wicks, light and blow out all street lamps, keep the street crossings clean in bad weather and free from obstruction at all times, shall see that all property owners keep weeds and grass free from their pavements or do it himself, cause able-bodied male persons to work the roads or pay $3 cash, and perform all other duties imposed on him by the council.

For failure to perform the above duties, the marshal shall be ousted and the office declared vacant by council and filled in the same manner as other vacancies. We imagine this official would have little time to either whittle or travel on the cars.

LISBON'S POTTERY.

A Liberal Proposition Made by Thomas Bros. is Spoken of by the Buckeye.

In speaking of that proposed pottery for Lisbon the Buckeye State this week says:

It would be useless at this time to indulge in a lengthy homily upon the advantages to be secured by Lisbon in the obtaining of additional industrial enterprises, such as would give employment to added scores and hundreds of men and redound to the general prosperity of the community.

In the days that are past the newspapers of the town have done their full share—perhaps more than their share—in calling the public attention to the benefits sure to follow the exhibition of a spirit of enterprise and progress on the part of the people generally, and especially those who are in a position to profit directly by the encouragement of productive enterprises.

The people of Lisbon have seen other towns grow up around us and prosper to a much greater degree than has Lisbon, although not possessing as great natural advantages as we had. They possessed that however which Lisbon did not, the spirit of public enterprise and material progress. It was this spirit that made the cities of Canton, Youngstown and Akron what they are today, and it would have done the same or more for Lisbon. The past, however, is behind us; the present is with us, and the future yet to come.

The proposition laid before our people by the Thomas Brothers, of East Liverpool, well known and successful pottery operators, with an abundance of capital, to construct and keep in operation a five-kiln pottery plant, employing nearly 200 men, for a cash bonus of $10,000 and a land donation that will bring them an additional $10,000, while it looks like an onerous burden for a town of 4,000 people to assume, is really one of the fairest propositions that have recently been placed before our people. It looks like a large sum of money to raise,

but it will prove, as the tin mill has proved, the best investment our business men and property owners have ever made.

The success of this enterprise will invite others and before many years it will not be necessary for Lisbon to offer bonuses to secure manufacturing enterprises, and the increase in population and capital that this and other enterprises will bring will remove the burdens of that nature.

To the Public.

Owing to the objections of T. & L. Council the employees of the C. C. Thompson Pottery company have decided to postpone the proposed excursion to Cleveland on Labor day, Sept. 3, as it was not promoted with the intention of in any way interfering with the celebration in this city.

If you want a nice medium weight suit for fall get it this week at reduced prices.

Buckeye State.
A Wellsville official last week took a woman to the Canton workhouse handcuffed to a male fellow prisoner. This was simply beastly. The woman was doubtless a bad character, but she was a woman, and as such was entitled to better and at least decent treatment. Little surprise that the scene provoked indignant comment at various places along the trip to Canton.
